

Verisure Midholding AB (publ) Acknowledges Norwegian Competition Authority Statement

June 17, 2019. 09:00 CET. As previously reported by Verisure Midholding AB (publ) (together with Verisure Holding AB (publ), the “Company” or “we”), the Norwegian Competition Authority (the “NCA”) in June 2017 launched an investigation involving a Company subsidiary in Norway (“Verisure Norway”), with which that company has fully cooperated. The Company confirms that the NCA issued a statement of objections this morning to Verisure Norway and Verisure Midholding AB with its preliminary findings, with the related press release to be made available during the course of the day at <https://konkurransetilsynet.no>. The statement includes recommendations for a fine of NOK 784 million. We are very disappointed in the preliminary findings, with which we disagree. We will now together with Verisure Norway review them in detail and respond to the NCA on the substance in due course.
