

Verisure Holding AB (publ)

Successful pricing of €1,012 million Senior Secured Financing

Successful pricing of €100 million Senior Notes due 2023

NOVEMBER 9, 2018. 18:00 CET. Verisure Holding AB (publ) (the “Issuer”) today announced (i) the successful pricing of an offering of €300 million in aggregate principal amount of 3½% Senior Secured Notes due 2023 (the “New Senior Secured Notes”) at par and (ii) the signing of definitive documentation that would permit the Company to raise €712 million in aggregate principal amount of incremental indebtedness under its newly established B1F tranche of its existing senior credit facilities, which will bear interest at the per annum rate of 3.50% plus EURIBOR (collectively, the “Senior Secured Financing”). The offering of the New Senior Secured Notes and the funding of the B1F tranche are expected to close on November 16, 2018 (the “Closing Date”), subject to customary closing conditions.

Additionally, Verisure Midholding AB (publ) (the “Company”) announced today the successful pricing of its offering (the “Senior Notes Offering” and, together with the Senior Secured Financing, the “Transactions”) of €100 million in aggregate principal amount of euro-denominated 5¾ Senior Notes due 2023 (the “Senior Notes”) at a price of 99.75%. The Senior Notes are additional notes under the indenture dated as of November 24, 2017 pursuant to which the Company issued €1,140 million (equivalent) Senior Notes due 2023. The offering of the Senior Notes is expected to close on the Closing Date, subject to customary closing conditions.

The gross proceeds of the Transactions will be used: (i) to redeem all of the Issuer’s 6% Senior Secured Notes due 2022, including paying the redemption premium in connection therewith, (ii) to repay outstanding amounts under the Company’s revolving credit facility, (iii) to make a distribution to the Issuer’s indirect shareholders and (iv) to pay fees and expenses in connection with the Transactions.

The offering was being made by means of an offering memorandum. This announcement does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy the New Senior Secured Notes, the Senior Notes or any other security and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in the United States or in any jurisdiction in which, or to any persons to whom, such offering, solicitation or sale would be unlawful.

The New Senior Secured Notes, the Senior Notes and the related guarantees have not been, and will not be, registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) or the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States, and may not be offered or sold within the United States, or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons, except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state or local securities laws. Accordingly, the New Senior Secured Notes and the Senior Notes and the related guarantees are being offered and sold in the United States only to qualified institutional buyers in accordance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act and to non-U.S. persons outside the United States in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act. There is no assurance that the offerings will be completed or, if completed, as to the terms on which they will be completed.

Promotion of the New Senior Secured Notes and Senior Notes in the United Kingdom is restricted by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the “FSMA”), and accordingly, the New Senior Secured Notes and the Senior Notes are not being promoted to the general public in the United Kingdom. This announcement is only addressed to and directed at persons who (i) are outside the United Kingdom, (ii) have professional experience in matters relating to investments (being investment professionals falling within Article 19(5) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, as amended (the “Financial Promotion Order”), (iii) fall within Article 49(2)(a) to (d) (“high net worth companies, unincorporated associations, etc.”) of the Financial Promotion Order, or (iv) to the extent that doing so does not prejudice the lawful distribution of the announcement to the foregoing, are persons to whom an invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the FSMA) in connection with the issue or sale of any Notes may otherwise lawfully be communicated or caused to be communicated (all such persons together being referred to as “relevant persons”). The New Senior Secured Notes and the Senior Notes will only be available to relevant persons and this announcement must not be acted on or relied on by anyone who is not a relevant person.

In connection with any issuance of the New Senior Secured Notes or the Senior Notes, a stabilizing manager (or any person acting on behalf of such stabilizing manager) may over-allot New Senior Secured Notes or Senior Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the New Senior Secured Notes or the Senior Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, there is no assurance that the stabilizing manager (or any person acting on behalf of the stabilizing manager) will undertake stabilization action. Any stabilization action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the New Senior Secured Notes or the Senior Notes is made and, if begun, may be ended at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the New Senior Secured Notes or the Senior Notes and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the New Senior Secured Notes or the Senior Notes, as applicable. Any stabilization action or over-allotment must be conducted by the stabilizing manager (or person acting on behalf of the stabilizing manager) in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.
