(k) any reference to:

- (i) rights attaching to any share;
- (ii) members having a right to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company;
- (iii) dividends being paid, or any other distribution of the Company's assets being made, to members; or
- (iv) interests in a certain proportion or percentage of the issued share capital, or any class of share capital; shall, unless otherwise expressly provided by the Statutes, be construed as though any treasury shares held by the Company had been cancelled.

2.2 Subject to the Statutes, a special resolution shall be effective for any purpose for which an ordinary resolution is expressed to be required.

2.3 Headings to these articles are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect construction.

3. OBJECTS

Nothing in these articles shall constitute a restriction on the objects of the Company to do (or omit to do) any act and, in accordance with section 31(1) of the Companies Act, the Company's objects are unrestricted.

4. LIMITED LIABILITY

The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares in the Company respectively held by them.

SHARE CAPITAL

5. RIGHTS ATTACHED TO SHARES

Subject to the Statutes and to the rights conferred on the holders of any other shares, any share may be issued with or have attached to it such rights and restrictions as the Company may by ordinary resolution decide or, if no such resolution is in effect or so far as the resolution does not make specific provision, as the board may decide.

6. ALLOTMENT (ETC.) OF SHARES

Subject to the Statutes, these articles and any resolution of the Company, the board may offer, allot (with or without conferring a right of renunciation), grant options over or otherwise deal with or dispose of any shares to such persons, at such times and generally on such terms as the board may decide.

7. AUTHORITY TO ALLOT SHARES AND GRANT RIGHTS

The Company may from time to time pass an ordinary resolution referring to this article and authorising, in accordance with section 551 of the Companies Act, the board to exercise all the powers of the Company to allot shares in the Company or to grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into shares in the Company and:

- (a) on the passing of the resolution the board shall be generally and unconditionally authorised to allot such shares or grant such rights up to the maximum nominal amount specified in the resolution; and
- (b) unless previously revoked the authority shall expire on the day specified in the resolution (not being more than five years from the date on which the resolution is passed), but any authority given under this article shall allow the Company, before the authority expires, to make an offer or agreement which would or might require shares to be allotted or rights to be granted after it expires.

8. DIS-APPLICATION OF PRE-EMPTION RIGHTS

8.1 Subject (other than in relation to the sale of treasury shares) to the board being generally authorised to allot shares and grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into shares in the Company in accordance with section 551 of the Companies Act, the Company may from time to time resolve, by a special resolution referring to this article, that the board be given power to allot equity securities for cash and, on the passing of the resolution, the board shall have power to allot (pursuant to that authority) equity securities for cash as if section 561 of the Companies Act did not apply to the allotment but that power shall be limited to:

- (a) the allotment of equity securities in connection with a rights issue; and
- (b) the allotment (other than in connection with a rights issue) of equity securities having a nominal amount not exceeding in aggregate the sum specified in the special resolution, and unless previously revoked, that power shall (if so provided in the special resolution) expire on the date specified in the special resolution of the Company. The Company may before the power expires make an offer or agreement which would or might require equity securities to be allotted after it expires.

8.2 For the purposes of this article:

- (a) equity securities and ordinary shares have the meanings given in section 560 of the Companies Act;
- (b) rights issue means an offer or issue of equity securities open for acceptance for a period fixed by the board to or in favour of holders of shares in proportion (as nearly as may be practicable) to their existing holdings but the board may make such exclusions or other arrangements as the board considers expedient in relation to treasury shares, fractional entitlements, record dates, legal or practical problems under the laws in any territory or the requirements of any relevant regulatory body or stock exchange or any other matter; and

- (c) a reference to the allotment of equity securities includes (pursuant to sections 560(2) and (3) of the Companies Act) the grant of a right to subscribe for, or to convert any securities into, ordinary shares in the Company, and the sale of any ordinary shares in the Company that immediately before the sale, were held by the Company as treasury shares.

9. POWER TO PAY COMMISSION

The Company may in connection with the issue of any shares exercise all powers of paying commission conferred or permitted by the Statutes. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, any such commission or brokerage may be satisfied by the payment of cash or by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other.

10. POWER TO ALTER SHARE CAPITAL

10.1 The Company may exercise the powers conferred by the Statutes to:

- (a) increase its share capital by allotting new shares;
- (b) reduce its share capital;
- (c) sub-divide or consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital;
- (d) redenominate all or any of its shares and reduce its share capital in connection with such a redenomination.

10.2 A resolution by which any share is sub-divided may determine that, as between the holders of the shares resulting from the sub-division, one or more of the shares may have such preferred or other special rights, or may have such qualified or deferred rights or be subject to such restrictions, as compared with the other or others, as the Company has power to attach to new shares.

10.3 If as a result of any consolidation and division or sub-division of shares any members would become entitled to fractions of a share, the board may deal with the fractions as it thinks fit. In particular, without limitation, the board may:

- (a) (on behalf of those members) aggregate and sell the shares representing the fractions to any person (including, subject to the Statutes, the Company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among those members (except that any proceeds in respect of any holding less than a sum fixed by the board may be retained for the benefit of the Company); or
- (b) subject to the Statutes, first, allot to a member credited as fully paid by way of capitalisation of any reserve account of the Company such number of shares as rounds up his holding to a number which, following consolidation and division or sub-division, leaves a whole number of shares.

- 10.4 For the purpose of a sale under article 10.3(a) above, the board may authorise a person to transfer the shares to, or as directed by, the purchaser, who shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money and the title of the new holder to the shares shall not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings relating to the sale.

11. POWER TO ISSUE REDEEMABLE SHARES

Subject to the Statutes, and without prejudice to any rights attached to any existing shares or class of shares, any share may be issued on terms that it is to be redeemed or is liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the holder. The terms, conditions and manner of redemption of such shares may be determined by the board before the shares are allotted.

12. POWER TO PURCHASE OWN SHARES

Subject to the Statutes, the Company may purchase all or any of its shares of any class, including any redeemable shares.

13. POWER TO REDUCE CAPITAL

Subject to the Statutes and to any rights conferred on the holders of any class of shares, the Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve and any share premium account in any way.

14. TRUSTS NOT RECOGNISED

Except as required by law or these articles, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and the Company shall not be bound by or required to recognise (even when having notice of it) any interest in or in respect of any share, except the holder's absolute right to the entirety of the share.

UNCERTIFICATED SHARES – GENERAL POWERS

15. UNCERTIFICATED SHARES – GENERAL POWERS

- 15.1 The board may permit any class of shares to be held in uncertificated form and to be transferred by means of a relevant system and may revoke any such permission.
- 15.2 In relation to any share which is for the time being held in uncertificated form:
- (a) the Company may utilise the relevant system in which it is held to the fullest extent available from time to time in the exercise of any of its powers or functions under the Statutes or these articles or otherwise in effecting any actions and the board may from time to time determine the manner in which such powers, functions and actions shall be so exercised or effected;
 - (b) any provision in these articles which is inconsistent with:
 - (i) the holding or transfer of that share in the manner prescribed or permitted by the Statutes;
 - (ii) any other provision of the Statutes relating to shares held in uncertificated form; or

- (iii) the exercise of any powers or functions by the Company or the effecting by the Company of any actions by means of a relevant system, shall not apply,

- (c) the Company may, by notice to the holder of that share, require the holder to change the form of such share to certificated form within such period as may be specified in the notice;
 - (d) the Company may require that share to be converted into certificated form in accordance with the Statutes; and
 - (e) the Company shall not issue a certificate.
- 15.3 The Company may, by notice to the holder of any share in certificated form, direct that the form of such share may not be changed to uncertificated form for a period specified in such notice.
- 15.4 For the purpose of effecting any action by the Company, the board may determine that shares held by a person in uncertificated form shall be treated as a separate holding from shares held by that person in certificated form but shares of a class held by a person in uncertificated form shall not be treated as a separate class from shares of that class held by that person in certificated form.

VARIATION OF RIGHTS

16. VARIATION OF RIGHTS

- 16.1 Whenever the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights for the time being attached to any class of shares in issue may from time to time (whether or not the Company is being wound up) be varied in such manner as those rights may provide or (if no such provision is made) either with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of that class or with the authority of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of those shares.
- 16.2 The provisions of these articles relating to general meetings of the Company or to the proceedings at general meetings shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to every such separate general meeting, except that:
- (a) the quorum at any such meeting (other than an adjourned meeting) shall be two members present in person or by proxy holding at least one-third in nominal amount of the issued shares of the class;
 - (b) at an adjourned meeting the quorum shall be one member present in person or by proxy holding shares of the class;
 - (c) every holder of shares of the class shall, on a poll, have one vote in respect of every share of the class held by him; and
 - (d) a poll may be demanded by any one holder of shares of the class whether present in person or by proxy.
- 16.3 Unless otherwise expressly provided by the rights attached to any class of shares those rights shall not be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu with them or by the purchase or redemption by the Company of any of its own shares.

TRANSFERS OF SHARES17. RIGHT TO TRANSFER SHARES

Subject to the restrictions in these articles, a member may transfer all or any of his shares in any manner which is permitted by the Statutes and is from time to time approved by the board.

18. TRANSFERS OF UNCERTIFICATED SHARES

The Company shall maintain a record of uncertificated shares in accordance with the Statutes.

19. TRANSFERS OF CERTIFICATED SHARES

19.1 Without prejudice to any power of the Company to register as a member a person to whom the right to any share has been transmitted by operation of law, the instrument of transfer of a certificated share may be in any usual form or in any other form which the board may approve and shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and (except in the case of a fully paid share) by or on behalf of the transferee.

19.2 The board may, in its absolute discretion refuse to register any instrument of transfer of a certificated share:

(a) which is not fully paid up, provided that the refusal does not prevent dealings in shares in the Company from taking place on an open and proper basis; or

(b) on which the Company has a lien.

19.3 The board may also refuse to register any instrument of transfer of a certificated share unless it is:

(a) left, duly stamped (if required), at the office, or at such other place as the board may decide, for registration;

(b) accompanied by the certificate for the shares to be transferred and such other evidence (if any) as the board may reasonably require to prove the title of the intending transferor or his right to transfer the shares; and

(c) in respect of only one class of shares.

19.4 All instruments of transfer which are registered may be retained by the Company, but any instrument of transfer which the board refuses to register shall (except in any case where fraud or any other crime involving dishonesty is suspected in relation to such transfer) be returned to the person presenting it.

20. OTHER PROVISIONS RELATING TO TRANSFERS

20.1 No fee shall be charged for registration of a transfer or other document or instruction relating to or affecting the title to any share.

20.2 The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect of the share.

20.3 Nothing in these articles shall preclude the board from recognising a renunciation of the allotment of any share by the allottee in favour of some other person.

20.4 Unless otherwise agreed by the board in any particular case, the maximum number of persons who may be entered on the register as joint holders of a share is four.

21. NOTICE OF REFUSAL

If the board refuses to register a transfer of a certificated share it shall, as soon as practicable and in any event within two months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged, give to the transferee notice of the refusal together with its reasons for refusal. The board shall provide the transferee with such further information about the reasons for the refusal as the transferee may reasonably request.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES22. TRANSMISSION ON DEATH

If a member dies, the survivor, where the deceased was a joint holder, and his personal representatives where he was a sole or the only surviving holder, shall be the only person or persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his shares, but nothing in these articles shall release the estate of a deceased holder from any liability in respect of any share held by him solely or jointly.

23. ELECTION OF PERSON ENTITLED BY TRANSMISSION

23.1 A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or of any other event giving rise to a transmission by operation of law may, on producing such evidence as the board may require and subject as provided in this article, elect either to be registered himself as the holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the holder of the share.

23.2 If he elects to be registered himself, he shall give notice to the Company to that effect. If he elects to have another person registered, he shall execute a transfer of the share to that person or shall execute such other document or take such other action as the board may require to enable that person to be registered.

23.3 The provisions of these articles relating to the transfer of shares shall apply to the notice or instrument of transfer or other document or action as if it were a transfer effected by the person from whom the title by transmission is derived and the event giving rise to such transmission had not occurred.

24. RIGHTS OF PERSON ENTITLED BY TRANSMISSION

24.1 A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of a death or bankruptcy or of any other event giving rise to a transmission by operation of law shall, on production of any evidence as to their entitlement properly required by the board and subject to the requirements of article 23, have the right to receive and give a discharge for any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the share and shall have the same rights in relation to the share as he would have if he were the holder except that, until he becomes the holder, he shall not be entitled to receive notice of, or attend or vote at any general meeting of the Company.

- 24.2 The board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and, if after 90 days the notice has not been complied with, the board may withhold payment of all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

DISCLOSURE OF INTERESTS IN SHARES

25. DISCLOSURE OF INTERESTS IN SHARES

- 25.1 This article applies where the Company gives to the holder of a share or to any person appearing to be interested in a share a notice requiring any of the information mentioned in section 793 of the Companies Act (a “section 793 notice”).
- 25.2 If a section 793 notice is given by the Company to a person appearing to be interested in any share, a copy shall at the same time be given to the holder, but the accidental omission to do so or the non-receipt of the copy by the holder shall not prejudice the operation of the following provisions of this article.
- 25.3 If the holder of, or any person appearing to be interested in, any share has been given a section 793 notice and, in respect of that share (a “default share”), has been in default for a period of 14 days after the section 793 notice has been given in supplying to the Company the information required by the section 793 notice, the restrictions referred to below shall apply. Those restrictions shall continue for the period specified by the board, being not more than seven days after the earlier of:
- (a) the Company being notified that the default shares have been sold pursuant to an exempt transfer; or
 - (b) due compliance, to the satisfaction of the board, with the section 793 notice,
- the board may waive these restrictions, in whole or in part, at any time.
- 25.4 The restrictions referred to above are as follows:
- (a) if the default shares in which any one person is interested or appears to the Company to be interested represent less than 0.25% of the issued shares of the class, the holders of the default shares shall not be entitled, in respect of those shares, to attend or to vote, either personally or by proxy, at any general meeting of the Company; or
 - (b) if the default shares in which any one person is interested or appears to the Company to be interested represent at least 0.25% of the issued shares of the class, the holders of the default shares shall not be entitled, in respect of those shares:
 - (i) to attend or to vote, either personally or by proxy, at any general meeting of the Company; or
 - (ii) to receive any dividend or other distribution; or
 - (iii) to transfer or agree to transfer any of those shares or any rights in them, the restrictions in articles 25.4(a) and 25.4(b) above shall not prejudice the right of either the member holding the default shares or, if different, any person having a power of sale over those shares to sell or agree to sell those shares under an exempt transfer.

- 25.5 If any dividend or other distribution is withheld under article 25.4(b) above, the member shall be entitled to receive it as soon as practicable after the restriction ceases to apply.
- 25.6 If, while any of the restrictions referred to above apply to a share, another share is allotted in right of it (or in right of any share to which this article applies), the same restrictions shall apply to that other share as if it were a default share. For this purpose, shares which the Company allots, or procures to be offered, pro rata (disregarding fractional entitlements and shares not offered to certain members by reason of legal or practical problems associated with issuing or offering shares outside the United Kingdom) to holders of shares of the same class as the default share shall be treated as shares allotted in right of existing shares from the date on which the allotment is unconditional or, in the case of shares so offered, the date of the acceptance of the offer.
- 25.7 The Company shall have the right to reject any proxy received by it in relation to a general meeting and to disregard any further requests, requisitions, or proposed enjoyment or exercise of any rights from or by any person nominated pursuant to article 47 and/or such person's closely related parties if such person is in breach of this Article 25 (or would be in breach if such person were a member).
- 25.8 For the purposes of this article:
- (a) an exempt transfer in relation to any share is a transfer pursuant to:
 - (i) a sale of the share on a recognised investment exchange in the United Kingdom or on any stock exchange outside the United Kingdom on which shares of that class are listed or normally traded; or
 - (ii) a sale of the whole beneficial interest in the share to a person whom the board is satisfied is unconnected with the existing holder or with any other person appearing to be interested in the share; or
 - (iii) acceptance of a takeover offer (as defined for the purposes of Part 28 of the Companies Act);
 - (b) the percentage of the issued shares of a class represented by a particular holding shall be calculated by reference to the shares in issue at the time when the section 793 notice is given; and
 - (c) a person shall be treated as appearing to be interested in any share if the Company has given to the member holding such share a section 793 notice and either (i) the member has named the person as being interested in the share or (ii) (after taking into account any response to any section 793 notice and any other relevant information) the Company knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person in question is or may be interested in the share.

- 25.9 The board may at any time send a notice cancelling the section 793 notice.
- 25.10 The Company may exercise any of its powers under article 15 in respect of any default shares in uncertificated form.
- 25.11 The provisions of this article are without prejudice to the provisions of section 794 of the Companies Act and, in particular, the Company may apply to the court under section 794(1) of the Companies Act whether or not these provisions apply or have been applied.

GENERAL MEETINGS

26. CONVENING OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- 26.1 The board shall convene and the Company shall hold annual general meetings in accordance with the Statutes. The board may convene a general meeting other than an annual general meeting whenever it thinks fit.
- 26.2 A general meeting may also be convened in accordance with article 66.
- 26.3 A general meeting shall also be convened by the board on the requisition of members under the Statutes or, in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by the Statutes.
- 26.4 The board shall comply with the Statutes regarding the giving and the circulation, on the requisition of members, of notices of resolutions and of statements with respect to matters relating to any resolution to be proposed or business to be dealt with at any general meeting of the Company.
- 26.5 The board shall determine whether a general meeting is to be held as a physical meeting or an electronic meeting. The board may decide when and where, including on an electronic platform(s), to hold a general meeting.

27. SEPARATE GENERAL MEETINGS

Subject to these articles and to any rights for the time being attached to any class of shares in the Company, the provisions of these articles relating to general meetings of the Company (including, for the avoidance of doubt, provisions relating to the proceedings at general meetings or to the rights of any person to attend or vote or be represented at general meetings or to any restrictions on these rights) shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in relation to every separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

28. LENGTH AND FORM OF NOTICE

- 28.1 Subject to the Statutes, an annual general meeting shall be called by not less than 21 clear days' notice and all other general meetings shall be called by not less than 14 clear days' notice or by not less than such minimum notice period as is permitted by the Statutes.
- 28.2 The notice (including any notice given by means of a website) shall comply with all applicable requirements in the Statutes and shall specify whether the meeting will be an annual general meeting. Such notice shall specify whether the meeting will be physical and/or electronic, and shall also specify the time, date and place and/or electronic platform(s) of the general meeting. The notice shall also specify the agenda for the meeting, the total number of shares and voting rights as well as the members' right to participate in the meeting.

- 28.3 Notice of every general meeting shall be given to all members other than any who, under these articles or the terms of issue of the shares they hold, are not entitled to receive such notices from the Company, and also to the auditors (or, if more than one, each of them) and to each director.
- 28.4 The notice shall include details of any arrangements made for the purpose of article 37 (making it clear that participation in those arrangements will amount to attendance at the meeting to which the notice relates).
- 28.5 If the board determines that a general meeting shall be held (wholly or partly) as an electronic meeting, the notice shall specify any access, identification and security arrangements determined in accordance with article 32.

29. OMISSION OR NON-RECEIPT OF NOTICE

- 29.1 The accidental omission to give notice of a general meeting or to send, supply or make available any document or information relating to a meeting to, or the non-receipt of any such notice, document or information by, any person entitled to receive any such notice, document or information shall not invalidate the proceedings of that meeting.

30. POSTPONEMENT OF GENERAL MEETING

If the board considers that it is impracticable or unreasonable to hold a general meeting on the date or at the time or place and/or on the electronic platform(s) set out in the notice calling the meeting, it may change the time, date or place and/or electronic platform(s) or postpone the meeting (or do both). The board shall take reasonable steps to ensure that notice of the time, date and place time, date, place and/or electronic platform of the rearranged meeting is given to any member trying to attend the meeting at the original time, date, place and/or electronic platform. Notice of the business to be transacted at such rearranged meeting shall not be required. If a meeting is rearranged in this way, proxy forms can be delivered as specified in article 50. The board may also change the place and/or electronic platform(s) or postpone (or both) the re-arranged meeting under this article.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

31. QUORUM

- 31.1 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless the requisite quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business, but the absence of a quorum shall not preclude the appointment of a chair, which shall not be treated as part of the business of the meeting.

- 31.2 Except as otherwise provided by these articles two qualifying persons entitled to vote shall be a quorum, unless:
- (a) each is a qualifying person only because he is authorised to act as the representative of a corporation in relation to the meeting, and they are representatives of the same corporation;
 - (b) each is a qualifying person only because he is appointed as proxy of a member in relation to the meeting, and they are proxies of the same member; or
 - (c) the Company only has one member, in which case the quorum shall be one qualifying person entitled to vote.

31.3 For the purposes of this article, a qualifying person means:

- (a) an individual who is a member of the Company;
- (b) a person authorised to act as the representative of a corporation in relation to the meeting; or
- (c) a person appointed as proxy of a member in relation to the meeting.

31.4 If within 15 minutes from the time fixed for holding a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned for ten clear days (or, if that day is a Saturday, a Sunday or a holiday, to the next working day) and at the same time and place as the original meeting, or, subject to article 36.3 and the Statutes, to such other day, and at such other time and place, as the board may decide.

31.5 If at an adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 15 minutes from the time fixed for holding the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

32. SECURITY

32.1 The board may make any arrangements which it considers appropriate relating to the holding of a general meeting of the Company to ensure the health, safety and security of those attending the meeting including, without limitation, arranging for any person attending a meeting to be searched and for items of personal property which may be taken into a meeting to be restricted. A director or the secretary may:

- (a) refuse entry to a meeting to any person who refuses to comply with any such arrangements; and
- (b) eject from a meeting any person who causes the proceedings to become disorderly.

32.2 In relation to an electronic meeting, the board may make any arrangement and impose any requirement or restriction as is:

- (a) necessary to ensure the identification of those taking part and the security of any electronic communication; and
- (b) proportionate to those objectives.

In this respect, the board may authorise any voting application, system or facility for electronic meetings as it sees fit.

33. CHAIR

At each general meeting, the Nomination Committee shall present a proposal for resolution regarding election of a person to preside as chair of the meeting. Should the members present and entitled to vote at the meeting not approve the Nomination Committee's proposal, the chair of the board (if any) or, if he is absent or unwilling, one of the other directors selected for the purpose by the directors present or, if only one director is present and willing, that director, shall preside as chair of the meeting. If no director is present within 15 minutes after the time fixed for holding the meeting or if none of the directors present is willing to preside as chair of the meeting, the members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to preside as chair of the meeting.

34. RIGHT TO ATTEND AND SPEAK

34.1 A director shall be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting of the Company whether or not he is a member.

34.2 The chair may invite any person to attend and speak at any general meeting of the Company if he considers that such person has the appropriate knowledge or experience of the Company's business to assist in the deliberations of the meeting.

34.3 A proxy shall be entitled to speak at any general meeting of the Company.

35. RESOLUTIONS AND AMENDMENTS

35.1 Subject to the Statutes, a resolution may only be put to the vote at a general meeting if the chair of the meeting in his absolute discretion decides that the resolution may properly be regarded as within the scope of the meeting.

35.2 In the case of a resolution to be proposed as a special resolution no amendment may be made, at or before the time at which the resolution is put to the vote, to the form of the resolution as set out in the notice of meeting, except to correct a patent error or as may otherwise be permitted by law.

35.3 In the case of a resolution to be proposed as an ordinary resolution no amendment may be made, at or before the time at which the resolution is put to the vote, unless:

- (a) in the case of an amendment to the form of the resolution as set out in the notice of meeting, notice of the intention to move the amendment is received at the office at least 48 hours before the time fixed for the holding of the relevant meeting which, if the board so specifies, shall be calculated taking no account of any part of a day that is not a working day); or
- (b) in any case, the chair of the meeting in his absolute discretion otherwise decides that the amendment or amended resolution may properly be put to the vote, the giving of notice under article 35.3(a) above shall not prejudice the power of the chair of the meeting to rule the amendment out of order.

35.4 With the consent of the chair of the meeting, a person who proposes an amendment to a resolution may withdraw it before it is put to the vote.

- 35.5 If the chair of the meeting rules a resolution or an amendment to a resolution admissible or out of order (as the case may be), the proceedings of the meeting or the resolution in question shall not be invalidated by any error in his ruling. Any ruling by the chair of the meeting in relation to a resolution or an amendment to a resolution shall be final and conclusive.

36. ADJOURNMENT

- 36.1 With the consent of any general meeting at which a quorum is present the chair of the meeting may (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place (including any electronic platform(s)).
- 36.2 In addition, the chair of the meeting may at any time without the consent of the meeting adjourn the meeting (whether or not it has commenced or a quorum is present) to another time and/or place (including any electronic platform(s)) if, in his opinion, it would facilitate the conduct of the business of the meeting to do so.
- 36.3 Nothing in this article shall limit any other power vested in the chair of the meeting to adjourn the meeting. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more or sine die, at least 14 clear days' notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as in the case of the original meeting but otherwise no person shall be entitled to any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- 36.4 No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

37. MEETING AT MORE THAN ONE PLACE

- 37.1 A general meeting may be held at more than one place if:
- (a) the notice convening the meeting specifies that it shall be held at more than one place; or
 - (b) the board resolves, after the notice convening the meeting has been given, that the meeting shall be held at more than one place; or
 - (c) it appears to the chair of the meeting that the place of the meeting specified in the notice convening the meeting is inadequate to accommodate all persons entitled and wishing to attend.
- 37.2 A general meeting held at more than one place is duly constituted and its proceedings are valid if (in addition to the other provisions of these articles relating to general meetings being satisfied) the chair of the meeting is satisfied that facilities (whether electronic or otherwise) are available to enable each person present at each place to participate in the business of the meeting.
- 37.3 Each person present at each place who would be entitled to count towards the quorum in accordance with the provisions of article 31 shall be counted in the quorum for, and shall be entitled to vote at, the meeting. The meeting is deemed to take place at the place at which the chair of the meeting is present.

38. METHOD OF VOTING AND DEMAND FOR POLL

- 38.1 A resolution put to the vote at a general meeting held partly as an electronic meeting shall, unless the chair of the meeting determines that it shall (subject to the remainder of this article) be decided on a show of hands, be decided on a poll. Subject thereto, at a general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before, or immediately after the declaration of the result of, the show of hands or on the withdrawal of any other demand for a poll) a poll is demanded by:

- (a) the chair of the meeting; or
- (b) at least five members present in person or by proxy having the right to vote on the resolution; or
- (c) a member or members present in person or by proxy representing in aggregate not less than 10% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution (excluding any voting rights attached to any shares in the Company held as treasury shares); or
- (d) a member or members present in person or by proxy holding shares conferring the right to vote on the resolution on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than 10% of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right (excluding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote on the resolution which are held as treasury shares), and a demand for a poll by a person as proxy for a member shall be as valid as if the demand were made by the member himself.

All resolutions put to the vote at a general meeting held wholly as an electronic meeting shall be voted on by a poll, which poll votes may be cast by such electronic means as the board in its sole discretion deems appropriate for the purposes of the meeting.

- 38.2 No poll may be demanded on the appointment of a chair of the meeting.
- 38.3 A demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chair of the meeting and the demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made if a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- 38.4 Unless a poll is demanded (and the demand is not withdrawn), a declaration by the chair of the meeting that a resolution has been earned, or earned unanimously, or has been earned by a particular majority, or lost, or not earned by a particular majority, shall be conclusive, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of that fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- 38.5 The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

39. HOW POLL IS TO BE TAKEN

- 39.1 A poll demanded on the election of a chair or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. If a poll is demanded on any other question (and the demand is not withdrawn), it shall be taken at such time (either at the meeting at which the poll is demanded or within 30 days after the meeting), at such place and in such manner (including electronically) as the chair of the meeting shall direct and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members).
- 39.2 A poll demanded on a question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting without adjournment.
- 39.3 It shall not be necessary (unless the chair of the meeting otherwise directs) for notice to be given of a poll whether taken at or after the meeting at which it was demanded.
- 39.4 On a poll, votes may be given either personally or by proxy and a member entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
- 39.5 The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 39.6 Poll votes may be cast by such electronic means as the board in its sole discretion deem appropriate for the purposes of the meeting.

40. ELECTRONIC MEETINGS

- 40.1 The directors may decide to enable persons entitled to attend an electronic meeting to do so by simultaneous attendance and participation by electronic means with no person necessarily in physical attendance at the electronic meeting. Members or their proxies present shall be counted in the quorum for, and entitled to vote at, the general meeting in question, and that meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the chair of the meeting is satisfied that adequate facilities are available throughout the electronic meeting to ensure that members or their proxies attending the electronic meeting who are not present together at the same place may by electronic means:
- (a) participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened;
 - (b) hear all persons who speak at the meeting; and
 - (c) be able to ask questions electronically.

A member seeking to be present in person or by proxy at an electronic meeting is responsible for ensuring they have access to and can use the electronic platform. That meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid notwithstanding the inability of the member to gain access to or use the electronic platform, or the loss of access to or use of the electronic platform during the meeting.

Nothing in these articles prevents a general meeting being held both physically and electronically.

- 40.2 If it appears to the chair of the meeting that the electronic platform(s), facilities or security at the electronic meeting have become inadequate for the purposes referred to in article 37.1, then the chair of the meeting may, without the consent of the meeting, interrupt or adjourn the general meeting. All business conducted at that general meeting up to the time of that adjournment shall be valid. The provisions of article 36 shall apply to that adjournment.

VOTES OF MEMBERS41. VOTING RIGHTS

- 41.1 Subject to these articles and to any special rights or restrictions as to voting for the time being attached to any class of shares in the Company, the provisions of the Companies Act shall apply in relation to voting rights.
- 41.2 Subject to article 41.3 below, on a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a general meeting, every proxy present who has been duly appointed by one or more members entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote.
- 41.3 On a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a general meeting, a proxy has one vote for and one vote against the resolution if:
- (a) the proxy has been duly appointed by more than one member entitled to vote on the resolution; and
 - (b) the proxy has been instructed by, or exercises his discretion given by, one or more of those members to vote for the resolution and has been instructed by, or exercises his discretion given by, one or more other of those members to vote against it.
- 41.4 For the purposes of determining which persons are entitled to attend or vote at any general meeting, and how many votes such persons may cast, the Company must specify in the notice of the meeting a time, not more than 48 hours before the time fixed for the meeting, by which a person must be entered on the register in order to have the right to attend or vote at the meeting. In calculating the period mentioned, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day. Changes to entries on the register after the time so specified shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to attend or vote at the meeting, notwithstanding any provisions in the Statutes or these articles to the contrary.

42. REPRESENTATION OF CORPORATIONS

- 42.1 Any corporation which is a member of the Company may, by resolution of its board or other governing body, authorise any person or persons to act as its representative or representatives at any general meeting of the Company.
- 42.2 The board or any director or the secretary may (but shall not be bound to) require evidence of the authority of any such representative.
- 42.3 Such person is entitled to exercise (on behalf of the grantor) the same powers as the grantor could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company. Where a grantor authorises more than one person:
- (a) on a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting of the Company, each authorised person has the same voting rights as the grantor would be entitled to; and

(b) where paragraph (a) of this article does not apply and more than one authorised person purports to exercise a power in respect of the same shares:

- (i) if they purport to exercise the power in the same way as each other, the power is treated as exercised in that way; and
- (ii) if they do not purport to exercise the power in the same way as each other, the power is treated as not exercised.

43. VOTING RIGHTS OF JOINT HOLDERS

If more than one of the joint holders of a share tenders a vote on the same resolution, whether in person or by proxy, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote shall be accepted to the exclusion of the vote(s) of the other joint holder(s), and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register in respect of the relevant share.

44. VOTING RIGHTS OF MEMBERS INCAPABLE OF MANAGING THEIR AFFAIRS

A member in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his receiver, curator bonis or other person in the nature of a receiver or curator bonis appointed by that court, and the receiver, curator bonis or other person may, on a poll, vote by proxy. Evidence to the satisfaction of the board of the authority of the person claiming the right to vote must be received at the office (or at such other address as may be specified for the receipt of proxy appointments) not later than the last time by which a proxy appointment must be received in order to be valid for use at the meeting or adjourned meeting or on the holding of the poll at or on which that person proposes to vote and, in default, the right to vote shall not be exercisable.

45. VOTING RIGHTS SUSPENDED WHERE SUMS OVERDUE

Unless the board otherwise decides, a member shall not be entitled to vote, either in person or by proxy, at any general meeting of the Company in respect of any share held by him unless all calls and other sums presently payable by him in respect of that share have been paid.

46. OBJECTIONS TO ADMISSIBILITY OF VOTES

No objection shall be raised as to the admissibility of any vote except at the meeting or adjourned meeting or poll at which the vote objected to is or may be given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting or poll shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chair of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

47. NOMINATION RIGHTS

47.1 For the purposes of section 145 of the Companies Act, and subject to articles 47.2 and 47.3, the following members may, but shall not be required to, nominate another person or persons as entitled to enjoy or exercise all or any specified rights of the member in relation to the Company:

- (a) Euroclear Sweden, in its capacity as the Swedish central securities depository; or
- (b) any other member as approved by the Board from time to time.

47.2 A member may only nominate another person or persons pursuant to article 47.1, and may only make such nomination in respect of such rights, as have, in each case, been approved by the board.

47.3 Notwithstanding article 47.2, Euroclear Sweden shall be entitled to, and where requested by the board shall, nominate for the purposes of article 47.1, those persons listed in the Euroclear Sweden register of shareholders (the “Register of Shareholders”) from time to time to enjoy and exercise Euroclear Sweden’s rights as a member, in respect of the number of shares held by each such person as recorded in the relevant Register of Shareholders, to the exclusion of the corresponding rights of Euroclear Sweden.

47.4 The Company may prescribe the form and content of any nomination notice under article 47.1 or 47.3 from time to time and shall be entitled to request evidence from any person purporting to exercise any of the rights nominated under article 47.1 or 47.3 that such person is entitled to exercise such rights. The board shall be entitled to treat any purported exercise of rights as invalid where a person has not, in the board’s reasonable opinion, provided such satisfactory evidence. Any nomination under article 47.1 or 47.3 shall be given by notice in writing to the Company.

47.5 The rights of any person nominated under article 47.1 or 47.3 shall be subject to the provisions of these articles insofar as they relate to such rights, and the rights of such person shall cease at the termination of any nomination under article 47.1 or 47.3.

47.6 For the purposes of these articles, but subject to the provisions of the Companies Act and articles 47.1 to 47.3 (inclusive), references to any matter to be done by, or in relation to, a “member” shall be deemed to include reference to any person for the time being nominated in accordance with this article 47 insofar as they relate to the exercise of rights pursuant to this article 47.

48. NOMINATION COMMITTEE INSTRUCTIONS

Any proposed amendments to the Nomination Committee Instructions from time to time that would adversely affect the right of any holder to propose any director for election or re-election, or the chair of the board, arising thereunder shall require the prior written consent of such holder.

PROXIES

49. PROXIES

49.1 A proxy need not be a member of the Company and a member may appoint more than one proxy in relation to a meeting, provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by him.

- 49.2 The appointment of a proxy shall not preclude a member from attending and voting in person at the meeting or on the poll concerned.
- 49.3 The appointment of a proxy shall only be valid for the meeting mentioned in it and any adjournment of that meeting (including on any poll demanded at the meeting or any adjourned meeting).

50. APPOINTMENT OF PROXY

- 50.1 Subject to the Statutes, the appointment of a proxy may be in such form as is usual or common or in such other form as the board may from time to time approve and shall be signed by the appointor, or his duly authorised agent, or, if the appointor is a corporation, shall either be executed under its common seal or be signed by an agent or officer authorised for that purpose. The signature need not be witnessed.
- 50.2 Without limiting the provisions of these articles, the board may from time to time in relation to uncertificated shares (i) approve the appointment of a proxy by means of a communication sent in electronic form in the form of an "uncertificated proxy instruction" (a properly authenticated dematerialised instruction and/or other instruction or notification, which is sent by means of the relevant system and received by such participant in that system acting on behalf of the Company as the board may prescribe, in such form and subject to such terms and conditions as the board may from time to time prescribe (subject always to the facilities and requirements of the relevant system)), and (ii) approve supplements to, or amendments or revocations of, any such uncertificated proxy instruction by the same means. In addition, the board may prescribe the method of determining the time at which any such uncertificated proxy instruction is to be treated as received by the Company or such participant and may treat any such uncertificated proxy instruction which purports to be or is expressed to be sent on behalf of a holder of a share as sufficient evidence of the authority of the person sending that instruction to send it on behalf of that holder.

51. RECEIPT OF PROXY

- 51.1 A proxy appointment:
- (a) must be received at a proxy notification address not less than 48 hours before the time fixed for holding the meeting at which the appointee proposes to vote; or
 - (b) in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded or in the case of an adjourned meeting to be held more than 48 hours after the time fixed for holding the original meeting, must be received at a proxy notification address not less than 24 hours before the time fixed for the taking of the poll or, as the case may be, the time fixed for holding the adjourned meeting; or
 - (c) in the case of a poll which is not taken at the meeting at which it is demanded but is taken 48 hours or less after it is demanded, or in the case of an adjourned meeting to be held 48 hours or less after the time fixed for holding the original meeting, must be received:

- (i) at a proxy notification address in accordance with (a) above;
- (ii) by the chair of the meeting or the secretary or any director at the meeting at which the poll is demanded or, as the case may be, at the original meeting; or
- (iii) at a proxy notification address by such time as the chair of the meeting may direct at the meeting at which the poll is demanded, in calculating the periods mentioned, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day.

- 51.2 The board may, but shall not be bound to, require reasonable evidence of the identity of the member and of the proxy, the member's instructions (if any) as to how the proxy is to vote and, where the proxy is appointed by a person acting on behalf of the member, authority of that person to make the appointment.
- 51.3 The board may decide, either generally or in any particular case, to treat a proxy appointment as valid notwithstanding that the appointment or any of the information required under article 51.2 above has not been received in accordance with the requirements of this article.
- 51.4 Subject to article 51.3 above, if the proxy appointment and any of the information required under article 51.2 above, is not received in the manner set out in article 51.1 above, the appointee shall not be entitled to vote in respect of the shares in question.
- 51.5 If two or more valid but differing proxy appointments are received in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting or on the same poll, the one which is last received (regardless of its date or of the date of its execution) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the others as regards that share and if the Company is unable to determine which was last received, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that share.

52. NOTICE OF REVOCATION OF AUTHORITY ETC.

- 52.1 A vote given or poll demanded by proxy or by a representative of a corporation shall be valid notwithstanding the previous termination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll or (until entered in the register) the transfer of the share in respect of which the appointment of the relevant person was made unless notice of the termination was received at a proxy notification address not less than six hours before the time fixed for holding the relevant meeting or adjourned meeting or, in the case of a poll not taken on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting, before the time fixed for taking the poll.
- 52.2 A vote given by a proxy or by a representative of a corporation shall be valid notwithstanding that he has not voted in accordance with any instructions given by the member by whom he is appointed. The Company shall not be obliged to check whether the proxy or representative of a corporation has in fact voted in accordance with any such member's instructions.

DIRECTORS AND THE BOARD53. COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD

The board shall be comprised of a minimum of five and a maximum of 13 directors. For the purposes of each annual general meeting, the Nomination Committee shall, in advance of such general meeting, present proposals to the Board for resolutions regarding the election and/or re-election of directors in accordance with the Nomination Committee Instructions. The board shall verify that the Nomination Committee's proposals have been prepared in accordance with the material provisions of the Nomination Committee Instructions and these articles (as applicable) and, if so, put forward resolutions reflecting the Nomination Committee's proposals to the general meeting.

54. DIRECTORS NEED NOT BE MEMBERS

A director need not be a member of the Company.

ELECTION, RETIREMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS55. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS BY THE COMPANY

- 55.1 Subject to these articles, the Company may by ordinary resolution elect any person who is willing to act to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director, provided that such director has been nominated by the Nomination Committee in accordance with the Nomination Committee Instructions or proposed by a member in accordance with article 55.2(b), but so that the total number of directors shall not exceed any maximum number fixed by or in accordance with these articles.
- 55.2 No person (other than a director retiring in accordance with these articles) shall be elected or re-elected a director at any general meeting unless:
- (a) he is proposed for election or re-election by the Nomination Committee in accordance with the Nomination Committee Instructions and recommended for election or re-election by the board; or
 - (b) not less than 14 nor more than 42 days before the date appointed for the meeting there has been given to the Company, by a member (other than the person to be proposed) entitled to vote at the meeting, notice of his intention to propose a resolution for the election of that person, stating the particulars which would, if he were so elected, be required to be included in the Company's register of directors and a notice executed by that person of his willingness to be elected.

56. SEPARATE RESOLUTIONS FOR ELECTION OF EACH DIRECTOR

Every resolution of a general meeting for the election of a director shall relate to one named person and a single resolution for the election of two or more persons shall be void, unless a resolution that it shall be so proposed has been first agreed to by the meeting without any vote being cast against it.

57. THE BOARD'S POWER TO APPOINT DIRECTORS

The board may appoint any person who is willing to act to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or by way of addition to their number provided that such director has been nominated by the Nomination Committee in accordance with the Nomination Committee Instructions, but so that the total number of directors shall not exceed any maximum number fixed by or in accordance with these articles. The Nomination Committee shall be responsible for identifying and nominating for the approval of the board any candidates to fill vacancies on the board as and when they arise.

58. RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

- 58.1 At each annual general meeting every director shall retire from office. A retiring director shall be eligible for re-election, and a director who is re-elected will be treated as continuing in office without a break.
- 58.2 A retiring director who is not re-elected shall retain office until the close of the meeting at which he retires.
- 58.3 If the Company, at any meeting at which a director retires in accordance with these articles, does not fill the office vacated by such director, the retiring director, if willing to act, shall be deemed to be re-elected, unless at the meeting a resolution is passed not to fill the vacancy or to elect another person in his place or unless the resolution to re-elect him is put to the meeting and lost.

59. REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

- 59.1 The Company may by special resolution, or by ordinary resolution of which special notice has been given in accordance with the Statutes, remove any director before his period of office has expired notwithstanding anything in these articles or in any agreement between him and the Company.
- 59.2 A director may also be removed from office by giving him notice to that effect signed by or on behalf of not less than three quarters of the other directors.
- 59.3 Any removal of a director under this article shall be without prejudice to any claim which such director may have for damages for breach of any agreement between him and the Company.

60. VACATION OF OFFICE OF DIRECTOR

Without prejudice to the provisions of these articles for retirement or removal, the office of a director shall be vacated if:

- (a) he is prohibited by law from being a director; or
- (b) he becomes bankrupt or he makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally; or
- (c) a registered medical practitioner who has examined him gives a written opinion to the Company stating that he has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months and the board resolves that his office be vacated; or

- (d) if for more than six months he is absent, without special leave of absence from the board, from board meetings held during that period and the board resolves that his office be vacated; or
- (e) he gives to the Company notice of his wish to resign, in which event he shall vacate that office on the receipt of that notice by the Company or at such later time as is specified in the notice.

61. EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

- 61.1 The board may appoint one or more directors to hold any executive office under the Company (including that of executive chair, chief executive or managing director) for such period (subject to the Statutes) and on such terms as it may decide and may revoke or terminate any appointment so made without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between the director and the Company.
- 61.2 The remuneration of a director appointed to any executive office shall be fixed by the board and may be by way of salary, commission, participation in profits or otherwise and either in addition to or inclusive of his remuneration as a director.
- 61.3 A director appointed as executive chair, chief executive or managing director shall automatically cease to hold that office if he ceases to be a director but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company. A director appointed to any other executive office shall not automatically cease to hold that office if he ceases to be a director unless the contract or any resolution under which he holds office expressly states that he shall, in which case that cessation shall be without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.

REMUNERATION, EXPENSES, PENSIONS AND OTHER BENEFITS

62. SPECIAL REMUNERATION

- 62.1 The board may grant special remuneration to any director who performs any special or extra services to or at the request of the Company.
- 62.2 Such special remuneration may be paid by way of lump sum, salary, commission, participation in profits or otherwise as the board may decide in addition to any remuneration payable under or pursuant to any other of these articles.

63. EXPENSES

A director shall be paid out of the funds of the Company all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by him in and about the discharge of his duties, including his expenses of travelling to and from board meetings, committee meetings and general meetings. Subject to any guidelines and procedures established from time to time by the board, a director may also be paid out of the funds of the Company all expenses incurred by him in obtaining professional advice in connection with the affairs of the Company or the discharge of his duties as a director.

64. PENSIONS AND OTHER BENEFITS

The board may exercise all the powers of the Company to:

- (a) pay, provide, arrange or procure the grant of pensions or other retirement benefits, death, disability or sickness benefits, health, accident and other insurances or other such benefits, allowances, gratuities or insurances, including in relation to the termination of employment, to or for the benefit of any person who is or has been at any time a director of the Company or in the employment or service of the Company or of any body corporate which is or was associated with the Company or of the predecessors in business of the Company or any such associated body corporate, or the relatives or dependants of any such person. For that purpose the board may procure the establishment and maintenance of, or participation in, or contribution to, any pension fund, scheme or arrangement and the payment of any insurance premiums;
- (b) establish, maintain, adopt, amend and enable participation in any profit sharing or incentive scheme including share awards, share options or cash or any similar schemes for the benefit of any director or employee or consultant of the Company or of any associated body corporate, and to lend money (directly or indirectly) to any such director or employee or consultant or to trustees on their behalf or to any trustee of an employee benefit trust to enable any such schemes to be established, maintained or adopted or to enable participation therein; and
- (c) support and subscribe to any institution or association which may be for the benefit of the Company or of any associated body corporate or any directors or employees of the Company or associated body corporate or their relatives or dependants or connected with any town or place where the Company or an associated body corporate carries on business, and to support and subscribe to any charitable or public object whatsoever.

POWERS OF THE BOARD

65. GENERAL POWERS OF THE BOARD TO MANAGE THE COMPANY'S BUSINESS

- 65.1 The business of the Company shall be managed by the board which may exercise all the powers of the Company, subject to the Statutes, these articles and any special resolution of the Company. No special resolution or alteration of these articles shall invalidate any prior act of the board which would have been valid if the resolution had not been passed or the alteration had not been made.
- 65.2 The powers given by this article shall not be limited by any special authority or power given to the board by any other article or any resolution of the Company.

66. POWER TO ACT NOTWITHSTANDING VACANCY

The continuing directors or the sole continuing director at any time may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their number, but, if the number of directors is less than the number of directors fixed as a quorum for board meetings, they or he may act for the purpose of filling up vacancies or calling a general meeting of the Company, but not for any other purpose. If no director is able or willing to act, then any two members may summon a general meeting for the purpose of appointing directors.

67. PROVISIONS FOR EMPLOYEES

The board may exercise any of the powers conferred by the Statutes to make provision for the benefit of any persons employed or formerly employed by the Company or any of its subsidiaries (other than a director or former director or shadow director) in connection with the cessation or the transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

68. POWER TO BORROW MONEY

Subject to these articles and the Companies Act, the board may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, to guarantee, to indemnify, to mortgage or charge all or any part of its undertaking, property, assets (present and future) and uncalled capital, and to issue debentures and other securities, whether outright or as collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party. There is no requirement on the directors to restrict the borrowing of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings.

69. POWER TO CHANGE THE NAME OF THE COMPANY

The board may change the name of the Company.

DELEGATION OF BOARD'S POWERS70. DELEGATION TO INDIVIDUAL DIRECTORS

- 70.1 All directors are equally responsible for the work of the board, unless otherwise resolved at a meeting in accordance with these articles.
- 70.2 The board may entrust to and confer upon any director any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit and may revoke or vary all or any of them, but no person dealing in good faith shall be affected by any revocation or variation.

71. COMMITTEES

- 71.1 The board may delegate any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to subdelegate) to any committee consisting of such person or persons (whether directors or not) as it thinks fit, provided that the majority of the members of the committee are directors and that no meeting of the committee shall be quorate for the purpose of exercising any of its powers, authorities or discretions unless a majority of those present are directors. The board may make any such delegation on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit and may revoke or vary any such delegation and discharge any committee wholly or in part, but no person dealing in good faith shall be affected by any revocation or variation. Any committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers, authorities and discretions so delegated, conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the board.

- 71.2 The proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by any regulations imposed on it by the board and (subject to such regulations) by these articles regulating the proceedings of the board so far as they are capable of applying, specifying the duties and decision-making powers that the board has delegated to these committees and how the committees are to report to the board.
- 71.3 The board shall monitor whether a delegation to a committee can be maintained.

72. LOCAL BOARDS

- 72.1 The board may establish any local or divisional board or agency for managing any of the affairs of the Company whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere and may appoint any persons to be members of a local or divisional board, or to be managers or agents, and may fix their remuneration.
- 72.2 The board may delegate to any local or divisional board, manager or agent any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) and may authorise the members of any local or divisional board or any of them to fill any vacancies and to act notwithstanding vacancies.
- 72.3 Any appointment or delegation under this article may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the board thinks fit and the board may remove any person so appointed, and may revoke or vary any delegation, but no person dealing in good faith shall be affected by the revocation or variation.

73. POWERS OF ATTORNEY

The board may by power of attorney or otherwise appoint any person to be the agent of the Company on such terms (including terms as to remuneration) as it may decide and may delegate to any person so appointed any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate). The board may remove any person appointed under this article and may revoke or vary the delegation, but no person dealing in good faith shall be affected by the revocation or variation.

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS74. DIRECTORS' INTERESTS OTHER THAN IN RELATION TO TRANSACTIONS OR ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE COMPANY

- 74.1 If a situation (a "Relevant Situation") arises in which a director has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company (including, without limitation, in relation to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity, whether or not the Company could take advantage of it but excluding any situation which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest) the following provisions shall apply if the conflict of interest does not arise in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the Company:

- (a) if the Relevant Situation arises from the appointment or proposed appointment of a person as a director of the Company, the directors (other than the director, and any other director with a similar interest, who shall not be counted in the quorum at the meeting and shall not vote on the resolution) may resolve to authorise the appointment of the director and the Relevant Situation on such terms as they may determine;
- (b) if the Relevant Situation arises in circumstances other than in article 74.1(a) above, the directors (other than the director and any other director with a similar interest who shall not be counted in the quorum at the meeting and shall not vote on the resolution) may resolve to authorise the Relevant Situation and the continuing performance by the director of his duties on such terms as they may determine.

74.2 Any reference in article 74.1 above to a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties.

74.3 Any terms determined by directors under article 74.1(a) or 74.1(b) above may be imposed at the time of the authorisation or may be imposed or varied subsequently and may include (without limitation):

- (a) whether the interested directors may vote (or be counted in the quorum at a meeting) in relation to any resolution relating to the Relevant Situation;
- (b) the exclusion of the interested directors from all information and discussion by the Company of the Relevant Situation; and
- (c) (without prejudice to the general obligations of confidentiality) the application to the interested directors of a strict duty of confidentiality to the Company for any confidential information of the Company in relation to the Relevant Situation.

74.4 An interested director must act in accordance with any terms determined by the directors under article 74.1(a) or 74.1(b) above.

74.5 Except as specified in article 74.1 above, any proposal made to the directors and any authorisation by the directors in relation to a Relevant Situation shall be dealt with in the same way as any other matter may be proposed to and resolved upon by the directors in accordance with the provisions of these articles.

74.6 Any authorisation of a Relevant Situation given by the directors under article 74.1 above may provide that, where the interested director obtains (other than through his position as a director of the Company) information that is confidential to a third party, he will not be obliged to disclose it to the Company or to use it in relation to the Company's affairs in circumstances where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence.

75. DECLARATION OF INTERESTS OTHER THAN IN RELATION TO TRANSACTIONS OR ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE COMPANY

A director shall declare the nature and extent of his interest in a Relevant Situation within article 74.1(a) or 74.1(b) to the other directors.

76. DECLARATION OF INTERESTS IN A PROPOSED TRANSACTION OR ARRANGEMENT WITH THE COMPANY

If a director is in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company, he must declare the nature and extent of that interest to the other directors.

77. DECLARATION OF INTEREST IN AN EXISTING TRANSACTION OR ARRANGEMENT WITH THE COMPANY

Where a director is in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in a transaction or arrangement that has been entered into by the Company, he must declare the nature and extent of his interest to the other directors, unless the interest has already been declared under article 76 above.

78. PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST

78.1 The declaration of interest must (in the case of article 77) and may, but need not (in the case of article 75 or 76) be made:

- (a) at a meeting of the directors; or
- (b) by notice to the directors in accordance with:
 - (i) section 184 of the Companies Act (notice in writing); or
 - (ii) section 185 of the Companies Act (general notice).

78.2 If a declaration of interest proves to be, or becomes, inaccurate or incomplete, a further declaration must be made.

78.3 Any declaration of interest required by article 75 above must be made as soon as is reasonably practicable. Failure to comply with this requirement does not affect the underlying duty to make the declaration of interest.

78.4 Any declaration of interest required by article 76 above must be made before the Company enters into the transaction or arrangement.

78.5 Any declaration of interest required by article 77 above must be made as soon as is reasonably practicable. Failure to comply with this requirement does not affect the underlying duty to make the declaration of interest.

78.6 A declaration in relation to an interest of which the director is not aware, or where the director is not aware of the transaction or arrangement in question, is not required. For this purpose, a director is treated as being aware of matters of which he ought reasonably to be aware.

78.7 A director need not declare an interest:

- (a) if it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest;
- (b) if, or to the extent that, the other directors are already aware of it (and for this purpose the other directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware); or
- (c) if, or to the extent that, it concerns terms of his service contract that have been or are to be considered:
 - (i) by a meeting of the directors; or
 - (ii) by a committee of the directors appointed for the purpose under the articles.

79. DIRECTORS' INTERESTS AND VOTING

79.1 Subject to the Statutes and to declaring his interest in accordance with article 75, 76 or 77, a director may:

- (a) enter into or be interested in any transaction or arrangement with the Company, either with regard to his tenure of any office or position in the management, administration or conduct of the business of the Company or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise;
- (b) hold any other office or place of profit with the Company (except that of auditor) in conjunction with his office of director for such period (subject to the Statutes) and upon such terms as the board may decide and be paid such extra remuneration for so doing (whether by way of salary, commission, participation in profits or otherwise) as the board may decide, either in addition to or in lieu of any remuneration under any other provision of these articles;
- (c) act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (except as auditor) and be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director;
- (d) be or become a member or director of, or hold any other office or place of profit under, or otherwise be interested in, any holding company or subsidiary undertaking of that holding company or any other company in which the Company may be interested. The board may cause the voting rights conferred by the shares in any other company held or owned by the Company or exercisable by them as directors of that other company to be exercised in such manner in all respects as it thinks fit (including the exercise of voting rights in favour of any resolution appointing the directors or any of them as directors or officers of the other company or voting or providing for the payment of any benefit to the directors or officers of the other company); and
- (e) be or become a director of any other company in which the Company does not have an interest if that cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest at the time of his appointment as a director of that other company.

79.2 A director shall not, by reason of his holding office as director (or of the fiduciary relationship established by holding that office), be liable to account to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit resulting from:

- (a) any Relevant Situation authorised under article 74.1; or
- (b) any interest permitted under article 79.1 above, and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any director having any type of interest authorised under article 74.1 or permitted under article 79.1 above.

79.3 A director shall not vote (or be counted in the quorum at a meeting) in respect of any resolution concerning his own appointment (including fixing or varying its terms), or the termination of his own appointment, as the holder of any office or place of profit with the Company or any other company in which the Company is interested but, where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including fixing or varying its terms), or the termination of the appointment, of two or more directors to offices or places of profit with the Company or any other company in which the Company is interested, those proposals may be divided and a separate resolution may be put in relation to each director and in that case each of the directors concerned (if not otherwise debarred from voting under this article) shall be entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of each resolution unless it concerns his own appointment or the termination of his own appointment.

79.4 A director shall also not vote (or be counted in the quorum at a meeting) in relation to any resolution relating to any transaction or arrangement with the Company in which he has an interest which may reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest and, if he purports to do so, his vote shall not be counted, but this prohibition shall not apply and a director may vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of any resolution concerning any one or more of the following matters:

- (a) any transaction or arrangement in which he is interested by virtue of an interest in shares, debentures or other securities of the Company or otherwise in or through the Company;
- (b) the giving of any guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of:
 - (i) money lent or obligations incurred by him or by any other person at the request of, or for the benefit of, the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings; or
 - (ii) a debt or obligation of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings for which he himself has assumed responsibility in whole or in part (either alone or jointly with others) under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
- (c) indemnification (including loans made in connection with it) by the Company in relation to the performance of his duties on behalf of the Company or of any of its subsidiary undertakings;

- (d) any issue or offer of shares, debentures or other securities of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings in respect of which he is or may be entitled to participate in his capacity as a holder of any such securities or as an underwriter or sub underwriter;
- (e) any transaction or arrangement concerning any other company in which he does not hold, directly or indirectly as holder, or through his direct or indirect holdings of financial instruments (within the meaning of Chapter 4 of the Swedish Financial Instruments Trading Act) voting rights representing 1% or more of any class of shares in the capital of that company;
- (f) any arrangement for the benefit of employees of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings which does not accord to him any privilege or benefit not generally accorded to the employees to whom the arrangement relates; and
- (g) the purchase or maintenance of insurance for the benefit of directors or for the benefit of persons including directors.

- 79.5 If any question arises at any meeting as to whether an interest of a director (other than the chair of the meeting) may reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or as to the entitlement of any director (other than the chair of the meeting) to vote in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the Company and the question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting, the question shall be referred to the chair of the meeting and his ruling in relation to the director concerned shall be final and conclusive except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of the director concerned, so far as known to him, has not been fairly disclosed. If any question shall arise in respect of the chair of the meeting and is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting, the question shall be decided by a resolution of the board (for which purpose the chair shall be counted in the quorum but shall not vote on the matter) and the resolution shall be final and conclusive except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of the chair of the meeting, so far as known to him, has not been fairly disclosed.
- 79.6 Subject to the Statutes, the Company may by ordinary resolution suspend or relax the provisions of this article to any extent or ratify any transaction or arrangement not duly authorised by reason of a contravention of this article.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

80. BOARD MEETINGS

- 80.1 The board may meet for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit. A director at any time may, and the secretary at the request of a director at any time shall, summon a board meeting.

81. NOTICE OF BOARD MEETINGS

- 81.1 Notice of a board meeting may be given to a director personally in hard copy form or in electronic form to him at such address or email address as he may from time to time specify for this purpose (or if he does not specify an address or email address, at his last known address or email address). A director may waive notice of any meeting either prospectively or retrospectively. A director will be treated as having waived his entitlement to notice unless he has supplied the Company with the information necessary to ensure that he receives notice of a meeting before it takes place.

82. QUORUM

- 82.1 A quorum will require the attendance of a majority of the directors including at least one director nominated by each of H&F (if any are appointed at that time and provided H&F, together with its Investor Affiliates, holds a number of shares in the Company representing in aggregate not less than 10% of the total shares in issue) and Eiffel (if any are appointed at that time and provided Eiffel, together with its Investor Affiliates, holds a number of shares in the Company representing in aggregate not less than 10% of the total shares in issue), unless such director agrees that his or her presence shall not be required for any particular board meeting.
- 82.2 If a quorum is not present at a meeting of the board within 60 minutes from the time specified for the start of such meeting or, if during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall be adjourned to such time and date as the directors present at the non-quorate meeting may specify (being at least one working day following such meeting) and such adjourned meeting shall be deemed quorate provided a majority of the board is present.
- 82.3 Subject to these articles, any director who ceases to be a director at a board meeting may continue to be present and to act as a director and be counted in the quorum until the end of the board meeting if no other director objects and if otherwise a quorum of directors would not be present.

83. CHAIR OR DEPUTY CHAIR TO PRESIDE

- 83.1 The Company may by ordinary resolution appoint a chair of the Board, and may at any time revoke any such appointment, provided that such chair has been nominated by the Nomination Committee in accordance with the Nomination Committee Instructions.
- 83.2 Should the chair elected under Article 83.1 relinquish the position during the mandate period, the board may appoint a director as chair to serve until a new chair has been elected by ordinary resolution in accordance with Article 83.1.
- 83.3 The board may, if the chair (or any deputy chair so appointed under this article 83.3) has an impediment to attend and preside at a specific board meeting, appoint a deputy chair and may at any time revoke such appointment.

83.4 The chair, or failing him any deputy chair (the longest in office taking precedence, if more than one is present), shall, if present and willing, preside at all board meetings but, if no chair or deputy chair has been appointed, or if he is not present within five minutes after the time fixed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as chair of the meeting, the directors present shall choose one of their number to act as chair of the meeting.

84. COMPETENCE OF BOARD MEETINGS

A board meeting at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in or exercisable by the board.

85. VOTING

Questions arising at any board meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes the chair of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

86. TELEPHONE/ELECTRONIC BOARD MEETINGS

86.1 A person entitled to be present at a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board shall be deemed to be present for all purposes if the person is able to speak to and be heard by all those present or deemed to be present simultaneously.

86.2 By exception, and only with the prior consent of the chair, a person entitled to be present at a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board shall be deemed to be present for all purposes if each is able (directly or by electronic communication) to speak to and be heard by all those present or deemed to be present simultaneously.

86.3 A director deemed to be present under article 86.2 shall be entitled to vote and be counted in a quorum with the prior consent of the chair unless the relevant director has been notified at least 5 working days in advance of the meeting that his physical attendance at the meeting in the United Kingdom will be required. If a director has been so notified, the relevant director shall use all reasonable endeavours to attend the meeting in the United Kingdom and shall only be counted in the quorum, and entitled to vote at such meeting, if he physically attends it in the United Kingdom (in each case unless otherwise agreed by the chair, acting reasonably, and having regard to the requirements for managing the Company's tax residence to ensure that the Company remains tax resident solely in the United Kingdom and does not otherwise suffer any adverse tax consequences).

86.4 Meetings shall be deemed to take place where they are convened to be held.

87. RESOLUTIONS WITHOUT MEETINGS

87.1 A resolution which is signed or approved by all the directors/committee members entitled to vote on that resolution (and whose vote would have been counted) shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a board or (as the case may be) a committee of the board meeting duly called and constituted.

87.2 A director/committee member shall be deemed entitled to vote on a resolution if they are in the United Kingdom or, if not in the United Kingdom, by exception and only with the prior consent of the chair, unless the relevant director has been notified at least 5 working days in advance of the resolution that his signing or approval of such resolution is required to take place in the United Kingdom. If a director has been so notified, the relevant director shall use all reasonable endeavours to sign or approve the resolution in the United Kingdom and shall only be entitled to do so if he physically does so in the United Kingdom (in each case unless otherwise agreed by the chair, acting reasonably, and having regard to the requirements for managing the Company's tax residence to ensure that the Company remains tax resident solely in the United Kingdom and does not otherwise suffer any adverse tax consequences).

87.3 The resolution may be contained in one document or communication in electronic form or in several documents or communications in electronic form (in like form), each signed or approved by one or more of the directors concerned. For the purpose of this article, the approval of a director/committee member shall be given in hard copy form or in electronic form to such address (if any) for the time being specified by the Company for that purpose.

88. VALIDITY OF ACTS OF DIRECTORS IN SPITE OF FORMAL DEFECT

All acts bona fide done by a meeting of the board, or of a committee, or by any person acting as a director or a member of a committee, shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any member of the board or committee or of the person so acting, or that they or any of them were disqualified or had vacated office or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and qualified to be a director and had continued to be a director or member of the committee and had been entitled to vote.

89. MINUTES

89.1 The board shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose:

- (a) of all appointments of officers made by the board;
- (b) of the names of all the directors present at each meeting of the board and of any committee; and
- (c) of all resolutions and proceedings of all meetings of the Company and of any class of members, and of the board and of any committee.

89.2 Any such minutes, if purporting to be authenticated by the chair of the meeting to which they relate or of the next meeting, shall be sufficient evidence of the proceedings at the meeting without any further proof of the facts stated in them.

SECRETARY90. SECRETARY

The secretary shall be appointed by the board for such term, at such remuneration and on such conditions as it thinks fit, and the board may remove from office any person so appointed (without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract between him and the Company).

SHARE CERTIFICATES91. ISSUE OF SHARE CERTIFICATES

91.1 A person whose name is entered in the register as the holder of any certificated shares shall be entitled (unless the conditions of issue otherwise provide) to receive one certificate for those shares, or one certificate for each class of those shares and, if he transfers part of the shares represented by a certificate in his name, or elects to hold part in uncertificated form, to receive a new certificate for the balance of those shares.

91.2 In the case of joint holders, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate for all the shares in any particular class registered in their joint names, and delivery of a certificate for a share to any one of the joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.

91.3 A share certificate shall be issued under seal or signed by at least one director and the secretary or by at least two directors (which may include any signature being applied mechanically or electronically) or by any one director in the presence of a witness who attests the signature, or made effective in such other way as the directors decide. A share certificate shall specify the number and class of the shares to which it relates and the amount or respective amounts paid up on the shares. Any certificate so issued shall, as against the Company, be prima facie evidence of title of the person named in that certificate to the shares comprised in it.

91.4 A share certificate may be given to a member in accordance with the provisions of these articles on notices.

92. CHARGES FOR AND REPLACEMENT OF CERTIFICATES

92.1 Except as expressly provided to the contrary in these articles, no fee shall be charged for the issue of a share certificate.

92.2 Any two or more certificates representing shares of any one class held by any member may at his request be cancelled and a single new certificate issued.

92.3 If any member surrenders for cancellation a certificate representing shares held by him and requests the Company to issue two or more certificates representing those shares in such proportions as he may specify, the board may, if it thinks fit, comply with the request on payment of such fee (if any) as the board may decide.

92.4 If a certificate is damaged or defaced or alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, a new certificate representing the same shares may be issued on compliance with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and security for such indemnity as the board may think fit and on payment of any exceptional expenses of the Company incidental to its investigation of the evidence and preparation of the indemnity and security and, if damaged or defaced, on delivery up of the old certificate.

92.5 In the case of joint holders of a share a request for a new certificate under any of the preceding paragraphs of this article may be made by any one of the joint holders unless the certificate is alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

LIEN ON SHARES93. LIEN ON PARTLY PAID SHARES

93.1 The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all amounts payable (whether or not due) in respect of that share. The lien shall extend to every amount payable in respect of that share.

93.2 The board may at any time either generally or in any particular case declare any share to be wholly or partly exempt from this article. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of a share shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien (if any) on that share.

94. ENFORCEMENT OF LIEN

94.1 The Company may sell any share subject to a lien in such manner as the board may decide if an amount payable on the share is due and is not paid within 14 clear days after a notice has been given to the holder or any person entitled by transmission to the share demanding payment of that amount and giving notice of intention to sell in default.

94.2 To give effect to any sale under this article, the board may authorise some person to transfer the share sold to, or as directed by, the purchaser. The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall the title of the new holder to the share be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings relating to the sale.

94.3 The net proceeds of the sale, after payment of the costs of such sale, shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the amount due and any residue shall (subject to a like lien for any amounts not presently due as existed on the share before the sale), on surrender, in the case of shares held in certificated form, of the certificate for the shares sold, be paid to the holder or person entitled by transmission to the share immediately before the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES95. CALLS

95.1 Subject to the terms of allotment, the board may make calls on the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether in respect of nominal amount or premium) and each member shall (subject to his receiving at least 14 clear days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made) pay to the Company as required by the notice the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed in whole or in part as the board may decide.

- 95.2 Any call may be made payable in one sum or by instalments and shall be deemed to be made at the time when the resolution of the board authorising that call is passed.
- 95.3 A person on whom a call is made shall remain liable for it notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the share in respect of which the call is made.
- 95.4 The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all calls in respect of that share.
- 95.5 A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the board authorising the call was passed.

96. INTEREST ON CALLS

If a call is not paid before or on the due date for payment, the person from whom it is due shall pay interest on the amount unpaid, from the due date for payment to the date of actual payment, at such rate as the board may decide, but the board may waive payment of the interest, wholly or in part.

97. SUMS TREATED AS CALLS

A sum which by the terms of allotment of a share is payable on allotment, or at a fixed time, or by instalments at fixed times, shall for all purposes of these articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date or dates fixed for payment and, in case of non-payment, these articles shall apply as if that sum had become payable by virtue of a call.

98. POWER TO DIFFERENTIATE

On any allotment of shares the board may make arrangements for a difference between the allottees or holders of the shares in the amounts and times of payment of calls on their shares.

99. PAYMENT OF CALLS IN ADVANCE

The board may, if it thinks fit, receive all or any part of the moneys payable on a share beyond the sum actually called up on it if the holder is willing to make payment in advance and, on any moneys so paid in advance, may (until they would otherwise be due) pay interest at such rate as may be agreed between the board and the member paying the sum in advance.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES100. NOTICE OF UNPAID CALLS

- 100.1 If the whole or any part of any call or instalment remains unpaid on any share after the due date for payment, the board may give a notice to the holder requiring him to pay so much of the call or instalment as remains unpaid, together with any accrued interest.
- 100.2 The notice shall state a further day, being not less than 14 clear days from the date of the notice, on or before which, and the place where, payment is to be made and shall state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day and at the place appointed, the share in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

- 100.3 The board may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited on such terms and conditions as may be agreed. Subject to those terms and conditions, a surrendered share shall be treated as if it had been forfeited.

101. FORFEITURE ON NON-COMPLIANCE WITH NOTICE

- 101.1 If the requirements of a notice given under the preceding article are not complied with, any share in respect of which it was given may (before the payment required by the notice is made) be forfeited by a resolution of the board. The forfeiture shall include all dividends declared and other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited share and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
- 101.2 If a share is forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the person who was the holder of the share or (as the case may be) the person entitled to the share by transmission, and an entry that notice of the forfeiture has been given, with the relevant date, shall be made in the register, but no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any omission to give such notice or to make such entry.

102. POWER TO ANNUL FORFEITURE OR SURRENDER

The board may, at any time before the forfeited or surrendered share has been sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture or surrender upon payment of all calls and interest due on or incurred in respect of the share and on such further conditions (if any) as it thinks fit.

103. DISPOSAL OF FORFEITED OR SURRENDERED SHARES

- 103.1 Every share which is forfeited or surrendered shall become the property of the Company and (subject to the Statutes) may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, upon such terms and in such manner as the board shall decide either to the person who was before the forfeiture the holder of the share or to any other person and whether with or without all or any part of the amount previously paid up on the share being credited as so paid up. The board may for the purposes of a disposal authorise some person to transfer the forfeited or surrendered share to, or in accordance with the directions of, any person to whom the same has been disposed of.
- 103.2 A statutory declaration by a director or the secretary that a share has been forfeited or surrendered on a specified date shall, as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it and shall (subject to the execution of any necessary transfer) constitute a good title to the share. The person to whom the share has been disposed of shall not be bound to see to the application of the consideration for the disposal (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings connected with the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

104. ARREARS TO BE PAID NOTWITHSTANDING FORFEITURE OR SURRENDER

A person any of whose shares have been forfeited or surrendered shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited or surrendered share and shall, in the case of shares held in certificated form, surrender to the Company for cancellation any certificate for the share forfeited or surrendered, but shall remain liable (unless payment is waived in whole or in part by the board) to pay to the Company all moneys payable by him on or in respect of that share at the time of forfeiture or surrender, together with interest from the time of forfeiture or surrender until payment at such rate as the board shall decide, in the same manner as if the share had not been forfeited or surrendered. He shall also be liable to satisfy all the claims and demands (if any) which the Company might have enforced in respect of the share at the time of forfeiture or surrender. No deduction or allowance shall be made for the value of the share at the time of forfeiture or surrender or for any consideration received on its disposal.

SEAL

105. SEAL

- 105.1 The Company may exercise the powers conferred by the Statutes with regard to having official seals and those powers shall be vested in the board.
- 105.2 The board shall provide for the safe custody of every seal of the Company.
- 105.3 A seal shall be used only by the authority of the board or a duly authorised committee but that authority may consist of an instruction or approval given in hard copy form or in electronic form by a majority of the directors or of the members of a duly authorised committee.
- 105.4 The board may determine who shall sign any instrument to which a seal is applied, either generally or in relation to a particular instrument or type of instrument, and may also determine, either generally or in any particular case, that such signatures shall be dispensed with or affixed by some mechanical means.
- 105.5 Unless otherwise decided by the board:
- (a) certificates for shares, debentures or other securities of the Company issued under seal need not be signed; and
 - (b) every other instrument to which a seal is applied shall be signed by at least one director and the secretary or by at least two directors or by one director in the presence of a witness who attests the signature.

DIVIDENDS

106. DECLARATION OF DIVIDENDS BY THE COMPANY

The Company may, by ordinary resolution, declare a dividend to be paid to the members, according to their respective rights and interests in the profits, and may fix the time for payment of such dividend, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the board.

107. FIXED AND INTERIM DIVIDENDS

The board may pay such interim dividends as appear to the board to be justified by the financial position of the Company and may also pay any dividend payable at a fixed rate at intervals settled by the board whenever the financial position of the Company, in the opinion of the board, justifies its payment. If the board acts in good faith, none of the directors shall incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss such holders may suffer in consequence of the payment of an interim dividend on any shares having nonpreferred or deferred rights.

108. CALCULATION AND CURRENCY OF DIVIDENDS

- 108.1 Except insofar as the rights attaching to, or the terms of issue of, any share otherwise provide:
- (a) all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares in respect of which the dividend is paid, but no amount paid up on a share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purposes of this article as paid up on the share;
 - (b) all dividends shall be apportioned and paid pro rata according to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid but, if any share is allotted or issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, that share shall rank for dividend accordingly; and
 - (c) dividends may be declared or paid in any currency that the board shall determine.
- 108.2 The board may agree with any member that dividends which may at any time or from time to time be declared or become due on his shares in one currency shall be paid or satisfied in another, and may agree the basis of conversion to be applied and how and when the amount to be paid in the other currency shall be calculated and paid and for the Company or any other person to bear any costs involved.

109. METHOD OF PAYMENT

- 109.1 The Company may pay any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share:
- (a) by cheque or dividend warrant payable to the holder (or, in the case of joint holders, the holder whose name stands first in the register in respect of the relevant share) or to such other person as the holder (or, in the case of joint holders, all the joint holders) may notify to the Company for the purpose; or
 - (b) by a bank or other funds transfer system or by such other electronic means (including, in the case of an uncertificated share, a relevant system) to such account as the holder (or, in the case of joint holders, all the joint holders) may notify to the Company for the purpose; or
 - (c) in such other way as may be agreed between the Company and the holder (or, in the case of joint holders, all such holders).
- 109.2 Any such cheque or dividend warrant may be sent by post to the registered address of the holder (or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that person whose name stands first in the register in respect of the relevant share) or to such other address as the holder (or, in the case of joint holders, all the joint holders) may notify to the Company for the purpose.

109.3 Every cheque or warrant is sent, and payment in any other way is made, at the risk of the person or persons entitled to it and the Company will not be responsible for any sum lost or delayed when it has sent or transmitted the sum in accordance with these articles. Clearance of a cheque or warrant or transmission of funds through a bank or other funds transfer system or by such other electronic means as is permitted by these articles shall be a good discharge to the Company.

109.4 Any joint holder or other person jointly entitled to any share may give an effective receipt for any dividend or other sum paid in respect of the share.

109.5 Any dividend or other sum payable in respect of any share may be paid to a person or persons entitled by transmission to that share as if he or they were the holder or joint holders of that share and his address (or the address of the first named of two or more persons jointly entitled) noted in the register were the registered address.

110. DIVIDENDS NOT TO BEAR INTEREST

No dividend or other moneys payable by the Company on or in respect of any share shall bear interest as against the Company unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share.

111. CALLS OR DEBTS MAY BE DEDUCTED FROM DIVIDENDS

The board may deduct from any dividend or other moneys payable to any person (either alone or jointly with another) on or in respect of a share all such sums as may be due from him (either alone or jointly with another) to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to shares of the Company.

112. UNCLAIMED DIVIDENDS ETC.

All unclaimed dividends, interest or other sums payable may be invested or otherwise made use of by the board for the benefit of the Company until claimed. All dividends unclaimed for a period of 12 years after having been declared shall be forfeited and cease to remain owing by the Company. The payment of any unclaimed dividend, interest or other sum payable by the Company on or in respect of any share into a separate account shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect of it.

113. UNCASHED DIVIDENDS

If:

- (a) a payment for a dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share sent by the Company to the person entitled to it in accordance with these articles is left uncashed or is returned to the Company and, after reasonable enquiries, the Company is unable to establish any new address or, with respect to a payment to be made by a funds transfer system, a new account, for that person; or

- (b) such a payment is left uncashed or returned to the Company on two consecutive occasions, the Company shall not be obliged to send any dividends or other sums payable in respect of that share to that person until he notifies the Company of an address or, where the payment is to be made by a funds transfer system, details of the account, to be used for the purpose.

114. DIVIDENDS IN SPECIE

114.1 With the authority of an ordinary resolution of the Company and on the recommendation of the board, payment of any dividend may be satisfied wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid up shares or debentures of any other company.

114.2 Where any difficulty arises with the distribution, the board may settle the difficulty as it thinks fit and, in particular, may issue fractional certificates (or ignore fractions), fix the value for distribution of the specific assets or any part of them, determine that cash payments be made to any members on the basis of the value so fixed in order to secure equality of distribution and vest any of the specific assets in trustees on such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend as the board may think fit.

115. SCRIP DIVIDENDS

115.1 The board may, with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the Company, offer any holders of shares the right to elect to receive further shares, credited as fully paid, instead of cash in respect of all (or some part) of any dividend specified by the ordinary resolution (a scrip dividend) in accordance with the following provisions of this article.

115.2 The ordinary resolution may specify a particular dividend (whether or not already declared) or may specify all or any dividends declared within a specified period, but such period may not end later than five years after the date of the meeting at which the ordinary resolution is passed.

115.3 The basis of allotment shall be decided by the board so that, as nearly as may be considered convenient, the value of the further shares, including any fractional entitlement, is equal to the amount of the cash dividend which would otherwise have been paid (disregarding the amount of any associated tax credit).

115.4 For the purposes of article 115.3 above the value of the further shares shall be:

- (a) equal to the average middle-market quotation for a fully paid share of the relevant class, as shown in the London Stock Exchange Daily Official List for the day on which such shares are first quoted "ex" the relevant dividend and the four subsequent dealing days; or
- (b) calculated in such manner as may be determined by or in accordance with the ordinary resolution.

115.5 The board shall give notice to the holders of shares of their rights of election in respect of the scrip dividend and shall specify the procedure to be followed in order to make an election.

115.6 The dividend or that part of it in respect of which an election for the scrip dividend is made shall not be paid and instead further shares shall be allotted in accordance with elections duly made and the board shall capitalise a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the shares to be allotted out of such sums available for the purpose as the board may consider appropriate.

- 115.7 The further shares so allotted shall rank pari passu in all respects with the fully paid shares then in issue except as regards participation in the relevant dividend.
- 115.8 The board may decide that the right to elect for any scrip dividend shall not be made available to members resident in any territory where, in the opinion of the board, compliance with local laws or regulations would be unduly onerous.
- 115.9 The board may do all acts and things as it considers necessary or expedient to give effect to the provisions of a scrip dividend election and the issue of any shares in accordance with the provisions of this article, and may make such provisions as it thinks fit for the case of shares becoming distributable in fractions (including provisions under which, in whole or in part, the benefit of fractional entitlements accrues to the Company rather than to the members concerned). To the extent that the entitlement of any holder of shares in respect of any dividend is less than the value of one new share (as determined for the basis of any scrip dividend) the board may also from time to time establish or vary a procedure for such entitlement to be accrued and aggregated with any similar entitlement for the purposes of any subsequent scrip dividend.
- 115.10 The board may from time to time establish or vary a procedure for election mandates, under which a holder of shares may, in respect of any future dividends for which a right of election pursuant to this article is offered, elect to receive shares in lieu of such dividend on the terms of such mandate.
- 115.11 The board shall not make a scrip dividend available unless the Company has sufficient undistributed profits or reserves to give effect to elections which could be made to receive that scrip dividend.
- 115.12 The board may decide at any time before the further shares are allotted that such shares shall not be allotted and pay the relevant dividend in cash instead. Such decision may be made before or after any election has been made by holders of shares in respect of the relevant dividend.

CAPITALISATION OF RESERVES

116. CAPITALISATION OF RESERVES

- 116.1 The board may, with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the Company:
- (a) resolve to capitalise any sum standing to the credit of any reserve account of the Company (including share premium account and capital redemption reserve) or any sum standing to the credit of profit and loss account not required for the payment of any preferential dividend (whether or not it is available for distribution); and
 - (b) appropriate that sum as capital to the holders of shares in proportion to the nominal amount of the share capital held by them respectively and apply that sum on their behalf in paying up in full any shares or debentures of the Company of a nominal amount equal to that sum and allot the shares or debentures credited as fully paid to those members, or as they may direct, in those proportions or in paying up the whole or part of any amounts which are unpaid in respect of any issued shares in the Company held by them respectively, or otherwise deal with such sum as directed by the resolution provided that the share premium account, the capital redemption reserve, any redenomination reserve and any sum not available for distribution in accordance with the Statutes may only be applied in paying up shares to be allotted credited as fully paid up.

- 116.2 Where any difficulty arises in respect of any distribution of any capitalised reserve or other sum, the board may settle the difficulty as it thinks fit and in particular may make such provisions as it thinks fit in the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions (including provisions under which, in whole or in part, the benefit of fractional entitlements accrues to the Company rather than the members concerned) or ignore fractions and may fix the value for distribution of any fully paid up shares or debentures and may determine that cash payments be made to any members on the basis of the value so fixed in order to secure equality of distribution, and may vest any shares or debentures in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to share in the distribution as the board may think fit.
- 116.3 The board may also authorise any person to sign on behalf of the persons entitled to share in the distribution a contract for the acceptance by those persons of the shares or debentures to be allotted to them credited as fully paid under a capitalisation and any such contract shall be binding on all those persons.

117. CAPITALISATION OF RESERVES – EMPLOYEES' SHARE SCHEMES

- 117.1 This article (which is without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of the immediately preceding article) applies where, pursuant to an employees' share scheme:
- (a) a person is granted a right to acquire shares in the Company for no payment or at a price less than their nominal value; or
 - (b) the terms on which any person is entitled to acquire shares in the Company are adjusted so that the price payable to acquire them is less than their nominal value, and the relevant shares are to be subscribed.
- 117.2 In any such case the board:
- (a) may, without requiring any further authority of the Company in general meeting, at any time transfer to a reserve account a sum (the "reserve amount") which is equal to the amount required to pay up the nominal value of the shares in full, after taking into account the amount (if any) payable by the person from the profits or reserves of the Company which are available for distribution and not required for the payment of any preferential dividend; and
 - (b) (subject to article 117.4 below) will not apply the reserve amount for any purpose other than paying up the nominal value on the allotment of the relevant shares.

- 117.3 Whenever the Company allots shares to a person pursuant to a right described in article 117.1, the board will (subject to the Statutes) appropriate to capital the amount of the reserve amount necessary to pay up the nominal value shares in full, after taking into account the amount (if any) payable by the person, apply that amount in paying up the nominal value of those shares in full and allot those shares credited as fully paid to the person entitled to them.
- 117.4 If any person ceases to be entitled to acquire shares as described in article 117.1, the restrictions on the reserve account will cease to apply in relation to the part of that amount (if any) applicable to those shares.

RECORD DATES

118. FIXING OF RECORD DATES

- 118.1 Notwithstanding any other of these articles, but without prejudice to any rights attached to any shares, the Company or the board may fix a date as the record date by reference to which a dividend will be declared or paid or a distribution, allotment or issue made, and that date may be before, on or after the date on which the dividend, distribution, allotment or issue is declared, paid or made.
- 118.2 In the absence of a record date being fixed, entitlement to any dividend, distribution, allotment or issue shall be determined by reference to the date on which the dividend is declared or the distribution, allotment or issue is made.

ACCOUNTS

119. ACCOUNTING RECORDS

- 119.1 The board shall cause accounting records of the Company to be kept in accordance with the Statutes.
- 119.2 No member (as such) shall have any right of inspecting any account, book or document of the Company, except as conferred by law or authorised by the board or by any ordinary resolution of the Company.

COMMUNICATIONS

120. COMMUNICATIONS TO THE COMPANY

- 120.1 Subject to the Statutes and except where otherwise expressly stated, any document or information to be sent or supplied to the Company (whether or not such document or information is required or authorised under the Statutes) shall be in hard copy form or, subject to article 120.2 below, be sent or supplied in electronic form or by means of a website.
- 120.2 Subject to the Statutes, a document or information may be given to the Company in electronic form only if it is given in such form and manner and to such address as may have been specified by the board from time to time for the receipt of documents in electronic form. The board may prescribe such procedures as it thinks fit for verifying the authenticity or integrity of any such document or information given to it in electronic form.

121. COMMUNICATIONS BY THE COMPANY

- 121.1 A document or information may be sent or supplied in hard copy form by the Company to any member either personally or by sending or supplying it by post addressed to the member at his registered address or by leaving it at that address.
- 121.2 Subject to the Statutes (and other rules applicable to the Company) 6, a document or information may be sent or supplied by the Company to any member in electronic form to such address as may from time to time be authorised by the member concerned or by making it available on a website and notifying the member concerned in accordance with the Statutes (and other rules applicable to the Company) that it has been made available. A member shall be deemed to have agreed that the Company may send or supply a document or information by means of a website if the conditions set out in the Statutes have been satisfied.
- 121.3 In the case of joint holders of a share, any document or information sent or supplied by the Company in any manner permitted by these articles to the joint holder who is named first in the register in respect of the joint holding shall be deemed to be given to all other holders of the share.
- 121.4 A member whose registered address is not within the United Kingdom shall not be entitled to receive any notice from the Company unless he gives the Company a postal address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be given to him.
- 121.5 If the Company sends more than one notice, document or information to a member on separate occasions during a 12-month period and each of them is returned undelivered then that member will not be entitled to receive notices from the Company until the member has supplied a new postal address or electronic address for service of notices.

122. COMMUNICATION DURING SUSPENSION OR CURTAILMENT OF POSTAL SERVICES

- 122.1 If at any time by reason of the suspension or curtailment of postal services within the United Kingdom (or some part of the United Kingdom) the Company is unable effectively to subject to give notice of a general meeting to some or all of its members or directors then, subject to complying with article 122.2 below, the Company need only give notice of the meeting to those members or directors to whom the Company is entitled, in accordance with the Statutes, to give notice by electronic means.
- 122.2 In the circumstances described in article 122.1 above, the Company must:
- advertise the general meeting by a notice which appears on its website and in at least one national newspaper complying with the notice period requirements set out in article 28; and
 - send confirmatory copies of the notice (or, as the case may be, the notification of the website notice) by post to those members and directors to whom notice (or notification) cannot be given by electronic means if at least six clear days before the meeting the posting of notices (and notifications) to addresses throughout the United Kingdom again becomes practicable.

123. WHEN COMMUNICATION IS DEEMED RECEIVED

- 123.1 Any document or information, if sent by first class post, shall be deemed to have been received on the day following that on which the envelope containing it is put into the post, or, if sent by second class post, shall be deemed to have been received on the second day following that on which the envelope containing it is put into the post and in proving that a document or information has been received it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter, envelope or wrapper containing the document or information was properly addressed, prepaid and put into the post.
- 123.2 Any document or information not sent by post but left at a registered address or address at which a document or information may be received shall be deemed to have been received on the day it was so left.
- 123.3 Any document or information, if sent or supplied by electronic means, shall be deemed to have been received on the day on which the document or information was sent or supplied by or on behalf of the Company.
- 123.4 If the Company receives a delivery failure notification following a communication by electronic means in accordance with article 123.3 above, the Company shall send or supply the document or information in hard copy or electronic form (but not by electronic means) to the member either personally or by post addressed to the member at his registered address or by leaving it at that address. This shall not affect when the document or information was deemed to be received in accordance with article 123.3 above.
- 123.5 Where a document or information is sent or supplied by means of a website, it shall be deemed to have been received:
- (a) when the material was first made available on the website; or
 - (b) if later, when the recipient was deemed to have received notice of the fact that the material was available on the website.
- 123.6 A member present, either in person or by proxy, at any meeting of the Company or class of members of the Company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which the meeting was convened.
- 123.7 Every person who becomes entitled to a share shall be bound by every notice (other than a notice in accordance with section 793 of the Companies Act) in respect of that share which before his name is entered in the register was given to the person from whom he derives his title to the share.

124. RECORD DATE FOR COMMUNICATIONS

- 124.1 For the purposes of giving notices of meetings, or of sending or supplying other documents or other information, whether under section 310(1) of the Companies Act, any other Statute, a provision in these articles or any other instrument, the Company may determine that persons entitled to receive such notices, documents or other information are those persons entered on the register at the close of business on a day determined by it.
- 124.2 The day determined by the Company under article 124.1 above may not be more than 15 days before the day that the notice of the meeting, document or other information is given.

125. COMMUNICATION TO PERSON ENTITLED BY TRANSMISSION

Where a person is entitled by transmission to a share, any notice or other communication shall be given to him, as if he were the holder of that share and his address noted in the register were his registered address. In any other case, any notice or other communication given to any member pursuant to these articles shall, notwithstanding that the member is then dead or bankrupt or that any other event giving rise to the transmission of the share by operation of law has occurred and whether or not the Company has notice of the death, bankruptcy or other event, be deemed to have been properly given in respect of any share registered in the name of that member as sole or joint holder.

UNTRACED MEMBERS

126. SALE OF SHARES OF UNTRACED MEMBERS

- 126.1 The Company may sell, in such manner as the board may decide and at the best price it considers to be reasonably obtainable at that time, any share of a member, or any share to which a person is entitled by transmission if:
- (a) during a period of 12 years at least three cash dividends have become payable in respect of the share to be sold and have been sent by the Company in accordance with these articles;
 - (b) during that period of 12 years no cash dividend payable in respect of the share has been claimed, no cheque, warrant, order or other payment for a dividend has been cashed, no dividend sent by means of a funds transfer system has been paid and no communication has been received by the Company from the member or the person entitled by transmission to the share;
 - (c) on or after the expiry of that period of 12 years the Company made reasonable enquiries to establish the address of the member or person entitled by transmission to the share or the address at which notices may be given in accordance with these articles is located, in each case giving notice of its intention to sell the share; and

- (d) during the period of three months following the publication of those advertisements and after that period until the exercise of the power to sell the share, the Company has not received any communication from the member or the person entitled by transmission to the share.

126.2 The Company's power of sale shall extend to any further share which, on or before the date of publication of the first of any advertisement pursuant to article 126.1(c) above, is issued in right of a share to which article 126.1 above applies (or in right of any share to which this article applies) if the conditions set out in articles 126.1(b) to (d) above are satisfied in relation to the further share (but as if the references to a period of 12 years were references to a period beginning on the date of allotment of the further share and ending on the date of publication of the first of the advertisements referred to above).

126.3 To give effect to any sale, the board may authorise some person to transfer the share to, or as directed by, the purchaser, who shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall the title of the new holder to the share be affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of, the proceedings relating to the sale.

127. APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS OF SALE

- 127.1 The Company shall account to the person entitled to the share at the date of sale for a sum equal to the net proceeds of sale and shall be deemed to be his debtor, and not a trustee for him, in respect of them.
- 127.2 Pending payment of the net proceeds of sale to such person, the proceeds may either be employed in the business of the Company or invested in such investments (other than shares of the Company or its holding company, if any) as the board may from time to time decide.
- 127.3 No interest shall be payable in respect of the net proceeds and the Company shall not be required to account for any moneys earned on the net proceeds.

AUTHENTICATION

128. POWER TO AUTHENTICATE DOCUMENTS

Any director, the secretary or any person appointed by the board for the purpose shall have power to authenticate any documents affecting the constitution of the Company and any resolution passed by the Company or the board or any committee, and any books, records, documents and accounts relating to the business of the Company, and to certify copies or extracts as true copies or extracts. A document purporting to be a copy of a resolution, or an extract from the minutes of a meeting, of the Company or the board or any committee which is so certified shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the Company that such resolution has been duly passed or, as the case may be, that any minute so extracted is a true and accurate record of proceedings at a duly constituted meeting.

DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

129. DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

- 129.1 The board may authorise or arrange the destruction of documents held by the Company as follows:
 - (a) at any time after the expiration of six years from the date of registration, all instruments of transfer of shares and all other documents transferring or purporting to transfer shares or representing or purporting to represent the right to be registered as the holder of shares on the faith of which entries have been made in the register;
 - (b) at any time after the expiration of one year from the date of cancellation, all registered share certificates which have been cancelled;
 - (c) at any time after the expiration of two years from the date of recording them, all dividend mandates and notifications of change of address; and
 - (d) at any time after the expiration of one year from the date of actual payment, all paid dividend warrants and cheques.
- 129.2 It shall conclusively be presumed in favour of the Company that:
 - (a) every entry in the register purporting to have been made on the basis of an instrument of transfer or other document so destroyed was duly and properly made;
 - (b) every instrument of transfer so destroyed was a valid and effective instrument duly and properly registered;
 - (c) every share certificate so destroyed was a valid certificate duly and properly cancelled;
 - (d) every other document mentioned in article 129.1 above so destroyed was a valid and effective document in accordance with the particulars of it recorded in the books and records of the Company; and
 - (e) every paid dividend warrant and cheque so destroyed was duly paid.
- 129.3 The provisions of article 129.2 above shall apply only to the destruction of a document in good faith and without notice of any claim (regardless of the parties to it) to which the document might be relevant.
- 129.4 Nothing in this article shall be construed as imposing on the Company or the board any liability in respect of the destruction of any document earlier than as stated in article 129.1 above or in any other circumstances in which liability would not attach to the Company or the board in the absence of this article.
- 129.5 References in this article to the destruction of any document include references to its disposal in any manner.

WINDING UP130. POWERS TO DISTRIBUTE *IN SPECIE

If the Company is in liquidation, the liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution of the Company and any other authority required by the Statutes:

- (a) divide among the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Company and, for that purpose, value any assets and determine how the division shall be earned out as between the members or different classes of members; or
- (b) vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of members as the liquidator, with the like sanction, shall think fit but no member shall be compelled to accept any assets upon which there is any liability.

INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE, ETC.131. DIRECTORS' INDEMNITY, INSURANCE AND DEFENCE

As far as the Statutes allow, the Company may:

- (a) indemnify any director of the Company (or of an associated body corporate) against any liability;
- (b) indemnify a director of a company that is a trustee of an occupational pension scheme for employees (or former employees) of the Company (or of an associated body corporate) against liability incurred in connection with the company's activities as trustee of the scheme;
- (c) purchase and maintain insurance against any liability for any director referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) above; and
- (d) provide any director referred to in paragraphs (a) or (b) above with funds (whether by loan or otherwise) to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him in defending any criminal, regulatory or civil proceedings or in connection with an application for relief (or to enable any such director to avoid incurring such expenditure), provided that the powers given by this article shall not limit any general powers of the Company to grant indemnities, purchase and maintain insurance or provide funds (whether by way of loan or otherwise) to any person in connection with any legal or regulatory proceedings or applications for relief.

MANDATORY OFFERS132. APPLICATION OF SWEDISH MANDATORY OFFER RULES

- 132.1 For as long as neither the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules nor the UK City Code on Takeover and Mergers apply to the Company, the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules are hereby incorporated by reference into these articles such that they apply to the Company mutatis mutandis, in so far as that is possible in relation to the Company and subject to the provisions of the Companies Act. Accordingly, the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules apply to the Company and each member as if the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules were expressly set out herein, with only such modifications as are expressly set out in these articles or as may be necessary to give the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules effect as part of these articles.

- 132.2 Accordingly, any person who would have been obliged to make a mandatory offer if the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules had applied as a matter of law with regard to the Company shall be obliged to do so under these articles on the terms and within the time period prescribed by the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules. Each member, and any person nominated pursuant to Article 47 from time to time, and the Company agree to comply with the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder).

133. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD

- 133.1 The board shall be responsible for applying, enforcing and, to the extent necessary, interpreting the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder) including in relation to the determination of when a mandatory offer obligation has arisen, the identity of the party obliged to make a mandatory offer and the determination of whether one or more parties shall be considered as being closely related parties for the purposes of the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder). In performing any functions or exercising any responsibilities under this article 133, the board shall be required, subject to their fiduciary duties, to act in good faith, impartially, and in a manner consistent with the objectives and spirit of the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules.
- 133.2 The board shall have the authority to grant dispensations, exemptions, and waivers from the requirements of the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder) where they determine in good faith that to do so would be consistent with the objectives and spirit of the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules, and is consistent with the granting of dispensations, exemptions, or waivers under the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules by the the Swedish Securities Council.
- 133.3 The board may, at its discretion, seek non-binding advisory opinions from the Swedish Securities Council on the application or interpretation of the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules. The board shall take such opinions into account in good faith when determining the application of the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder).
- 133.4 The board may from time to time publish guidance for members on the application of the provisions in these articles regarding the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules, provided that such guidance is consistent with the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules and does not override or disapply any part of the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder). Such guidance shall be non-binding.

134. MEMBER AND BENEFICIAL HOLDER INFORMATION OBLIGATIONS

Each member and any person appearing to the Company to be interested in any way in any shares of the Company shall, upon request by the board, promptly provide such information as the board may consider appropriate including, without limitation, for the purposes of gaining a complete and accurate picture of those persons who are legally or beneficially interested in the Company's shares and for determining the application of the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder), including, without limitation, information regarding beneficial ownership, voting rights, agreements and arrangements between members, and closely related parties.

135. DETERMINATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

135.1 In the event the board determines pursuant to these articles that a mandatory takeover obligation has arisen pursuant to the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder), then the board shall notify in writing (a "MTO Notice") any person(s) which it believes is or are required to make such a mandatory takeover offer (each, an "Affected Person"). An Affected Person shall, subject to article 135.6, be entitled by notice to the Company in writing served within 10 working days of receipt of a MTO Notice to require that the Company refer the question of whether that Affected Person is subject to an obligation to make a mandatory takeover offer (the "Disputed Matter") to an independent third-party expert (the "Expert") for determination.

135.2 The Expert must: (i) be a former or current partner of a major law firm in Sweden; and (ii) have at least 20 years of experience and appropriate expertise in Swedish takeover regulation. At the time of appointment, if a former partner, the Expert must have stopped working in professional practice within the past ten years.

135.3 The Expert shall be appointed by agreement between the board and the relevant Affected Person(s) requiring the referral under article 135.1 (the "Applicant(s)"), or, failing such agreement within ten working days of the date of the notice under article 135.1, by the SCC Arbitration Institute at the request of any involved party.

135.4 The involved parties are obliged to promptly provide the Expert with any information and co-operation reasonably requested by the Expert, including by providing written evidence and attending and giving oral evidence at any hearing. The involved parties are entitled to access all information submitted to the Expert. The Expert shall act as an expert and not as an arbitrator, and the expert's written determination as to the Disputed Matter shall be final and contractually binding between the Company, the Applicant(s), and all members in the absence of fraud or manifest error. The Expert shall be instructed to deliver a written determination within 30 days of being appointed. If there is more than one Applicant in relation to the same or a related set of facts giving rise to an MTO Notice being served, then the Expert may consider the matters together and make a single written determination relating to all such Applicants and Disputed Matters.

135.5 The costs for the Expert and, if applicable, the appointment by the SCC Arbitration Institute, shall be borne equally by the Applicant(s) save that, where the Expert determines that the board has acted unreasonably in the performance of its role and responsibilities under article 133 in relation to the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules under these articles and it is just and equitable to do so, the Expert may determine that the costs shall be apportioned otherwise.

135.6 In the event of a referral pursuant to article 135, each of the Company and the Applicant(s) agree that, except in the case of fraud or wilful default on the part of the Expert, no person shall have any claim of any nature whatsoever against the Expert arising out of or in connection with their determination, and the Applicant(s) undertake on demand to indemnify and hold harmless the Expert from and against any and all loss, liability, damage or expense suffered or incurred by them as a result of any action, claim or demand threatened or made against them in relation to their appointment hereunder as Expert. The Expert may request that the Applicant(s) execute a separate deed of indemnity in favour of the Expert as a condition of accepting their appointment as Expert.

136. ENFORCEMENT AND SANCTIONS

136.1 If any person fails to comply with the requirement to make a mandatory offer pursuant to these articles within the applicable timeframe, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any person nominated pursuant to article 47, the board may, after giving such person an opportunity to be heard and notifying the affected member(s) and/or person(s) in writing, take such action as it deems appropriate to ensure compliance with the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder) and, automatically and without further notice to the relevant person or any action of the board, for such time as the board may determine:

- (a) the rights attaching to the relevant member's (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any person nominated pursuant to article 47, and any person deemed closely related to any member or person) shares in the Company to receive any dividend or other distribution shall be suspended; and
- (b) the relevant member (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any person nominated pursuant to article 47, and any person deemed closely related to any member or person) shall be prohibited from participating (including voting, either in person or by proxy) in any general meeting of the Company.

136.2 The Company shall have the right to reject any proxy received by it in relation to a general meeting and to disregard any further requests, requisitions, or proposed enjoyment or exercise of any rights from or by any person nominated pursuant to article 47 and/or such person's closely related parties if such person or such person's closely related parties are in breach of articles 132 or 134 (or would be in breach if such person were a member).

136.3 The board shall notify the affected person(s) (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any person nominated pursuant to article 47, and any person deemed closely related to any member or person) concerned in writing of any decision or action taken under article 136.1 or 136.2, and shall ensure that any such action is taken in accordance with the principles of procedural fairness, provided that failure to notify the affected person(s) will not relieve such person of any liability such person may otherwise have under these articles.

137. AMENDMENT

The provisions of these articles relating to mandatory offers may only be amended or repealed by a special resolution of the Company, provided that no such amendment or repeal shall have retrospective effect in relation to any acquisition or offer already made or required to be made under these articles.

138. NO CLOSELY RELATED PARTIES; SECURITY INTERESTS; INVESTOR AFFILIATE TRANSFERS

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these articles or in the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder):

- (a) no persons (or any affiliate of any person or any Investor Affiliate) shall be deemed to be closely related parties for the purposes of the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder) solely by virtue of the fact that they are party to any agreement between the members or the holders of any beneficial or other indirect interests in the shares (or, in each case, some subset of the members) as at the date of these articles, a summary of which is disclosed in an offering document published by the Company on or around the date of these articles, or by virtue of the fact that they cooperate in relation to an amendment, variation or waiver in respect of any such agreement;
- (b) if a person grants a mortgage, charge or other similar security interest in shares or that person's rights, title or interest in, to or in respect of shares (such mortgage, charge or other similar security interest, a "share pledge") in favour of another person (such other person and/or any person for whose benefit or on whose behalf such person holds such share pledge, a "security taker"):
 - (i) that person and the security taker (nor any person for whose benefit or on whose behalf the security taker holds such share pledge) shall not be deemed to be closely related parties for the purposes of the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder) solely by virtue of (A) the grant of such share pledge or such share pledge becoming capable of being enforced, (B) such share pledge providing the security taker the right or ability to sell or otherwise dispose or take ownership or control of shares or that person's rights, title or interest in, to or in respect of shares (or the voting rights attaching to shares) that are subject to that share pledge, or (C) the enforcement of such share pledge by the security taker; and

- (ii) the security taker shall not be obliged to make a mandatory offer solely by virtue of (A) the grant of such share pledge or such share pledge becoming capable of being enforced, (B) such share pledge providing the security taker the right or ability (whether contingent or absolute) to sell or otherwise dispose or take ownership or control of shares or that person's rights, title or interest in, to or in respect of shares (or the voting rights attaching to shares) that are subject to that share pledge, or (C) the security taker selling or otherwise disposing or taking control or ownership of shares or that person's rights, title or interest in, to or in respect of shares (or the voting rights attaching to shares) that are subject to that share pledge upon an enforcement of such share pledge by the security taker, provided however that for the avoidance of doubt the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules will apply to any acquisition by a party other than the security taker of shares or any rights, title or interest in, to or in respect of shares (or the voting rights attaching to shares) as a result of the security taker selling or otherwise disposing of such shares, rights, title or interest following enforcement of such share pledge;
- (iii) Eiffel and/or its Investor Affiliates (on the one hand) and GIC Public Equities and/or any entity or entities carrying out the business of GIC Public Equities (on the other hand) shall not be deemed to be closely related parties for the purposes of the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules (as applicable hereunder); and
- (iv) the Swedish Mandatory Takeover Rules shall not apply to any transfers of shares or interests in shares by either of H&F or Eiffel to their respective Investor Affiliates, or between Eiffel's Investor Affiliates, or between H&F's Investor Affiliates, in each case, regardless of what might otherwise follow from the application or interpretation of the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules.

FRUSTRATING ACTIONS

139. FRUSTRATING ACTIONS

- 139.1 The Swedish Frustrating Action Rules are hereby incorporated by reference into these articles such that they apply to the Company mutatis mutandis, in so far as that is possible in relation to the Company and subject to the provisions of the Companies Act. Accordingly, the Swedish Frustrating Action Rules apply to the Company as if the Swedish Frustrating Action Rules were expressly set out herein, with only such modifications as may be necessary to give the Swedish Frustrating Action Rules effect as part of these articles (including as set out in Article 139.2).

- 139.2 Notwithstanding article 139.1, if the Company or the board purports to take any action that would be prohibited or restricted by the Swedish Frustrating Action Rules unless approved by the Company's shareholders, and the Company has received binding irrevocable commitments in relation to a sufficient number of shares to ensure that any necessary resolution to approve the taking of such action for the purposes of the Swedish Frustrating Action Rules, then such action shall be deemed to have been approved by the shareholders as if the relevant resolution had been approved by shareholders at a general meeting.

APPLICATION OF LAW

140. ENGLISH LAW AND INTERPRETATION

- 140.1 Unless otherwise defined in these articles, terms used in this section shall have the meaning given to them in the Swedish Financial Instruments Trading Act, the Swedish Takeover Act and the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules.
- 140.2 The obligations set out in these articles in relation to the Swedish Mandatory Offer Rules and the Swedish Frustrating Action Rules are without prejudice to, and shall not operate so as to limit, any other powers, rights or remedies of the Company or the board provided under English law, including the Companies Act, or otherwise under these articles.
