

Verisure included in the MSCI Index

Geneva, Switzerland, 2 March 2026 - Verisure (NASDAQ: VSURE), the leading provider of professionally monitored security services in Europe and Latin America, has been included in the MSCI Index, effective after market close on 27 February 2026.

The inclusion follows MSCI's February index review published on the 10 February 2026. The MSCI Global Standard Index is one of the world's most widely followed equity benchmarks, capturing the performance of approximately 85% of the free float-adjusted market capitalization across 23 developed markets.

Austin Lally, CEO of Verisure, commented: "Being added to the MSCI Index is a result of our strong multi-year growth and the scale we have created. This traces to our differentiated business model where we focus on innovation, category-creating marketing, our go-to-market strength and a superior customer experience. We believe this inclusion will broaden our visibility among global institutional investors and support our journey as a publicly listed company."

Since commencing trading on Nasdaq Stockholm on 8 October 2025, Verisure has also been included in the OMX Stockholm All-Share Cap Index, the FTSE All-World Index, and the STOXX Europe 600 Index.
