

Verisure receives the highest possible MSCI ESG Rating of AAA

19 May 2026, Geneva, Switzerland – Verisure plc (“Verisure”), the world’s leading provider of professionally monitored security services by customers served, has received an MSCI ESG rating of AAA, recognising its leadership in ESG performance.

Verisure’s rating reflects an industry-adjusted score of 10, the highest achievable score, highlighting the company’s strong management of the most material environmental, social and governance risks. It also places Verisure among the leaders within its global peer group in the Diversified Consumer Services universe.

ESG Ratings by MSCI, the international ratings agency, assess companies based on their exposure to industry-specific ESG risks and how effectively those risks are managed, using publicly available information. The AAA rating is reserved for companies that demonstrate leadership in managing financially relevant ESG risks compared to their peers.

This achievement adds to Verisure’s ESG credentials following its top rankings for three consecutive years with Sustainalytics (*)

Marta Panzano, Chief Human Resources, Communications, and ESG Officer, said: “We are proud to receive this rating. It reflects the commitment and care our teams bring every day to protect our customers, and to do so responsibly. We see this as both an achievement and a responsibility to keep raising the bar. ESG is inherent to our mission, and this milestone reflects our continued efforts to strengthen governance, support our people and customers, and operate responsibly in the communities we serve.”
